JEY is here. JEY comes now in response to the call of the OMEGA, and JEY would allow each of you here to know at this time that in your midst there is a gathering of those who are in spirit that will indeed provide for you much in the way of spiritual energy at this time. Understand that as each of you are gathered here at this time as OMEGA that there is indeed that which is the Brotherhood in your midst and does indeed surrounds you. In addition to this, you who are here bring with you that which is your own guardian of spirit. Understand that this one comes now to carefully provide that which is guidance for you and protection for you. You must understand, also, that as you are gathered here there are many who come to you as teachers, and these, too, are in your presence. You find yourself surrounded by many who are here in spirit, out of love for that which is a fellow spirit and love for that which is the Creator. Understand that simply because you are spirit in body does not mean that you are separated from the love of those who come in spirit. They are indeed in your presence at this moment. And JEY comes now as gatekeeper for this which is the OMEGA and wishes for each of you to understand that as you are gathered here at this time there is a necessity for the one who has come to you in the past as Michael to be here for a purpose. As you are here and as others have come to be with us as OMEGA at this time, there is a necessity for the one who is Michael to come. And so at this time, if you will be in a state of meditation that will allow that one to be in your midst, it shall be so. Be at peace at this time .

AMEN! This one comes now, well known to you at this time of the meeting of the OMEGA, and this one comes for a purpose. It has been the will of the Creator for you in this lifetime that this one should come to be in your midst as a teacher; and you are to understand that the will of the Creator will be done. But allow this one to say to you that as you now are progressing toward that period where you will find that your spirit within and your physical mind are able to fully mesh, it will no longer be necessary for this one to come to you. Until such time as this occurs, this one who comes as Michael the Archangel will indeed be in your midst and come to bring that which is a blessing.

At this moment it is known to this one who comes as Michael that there is within your midst one who is new and one who has now set foot upon the path. And it is known at this time that it is the will of the Creator that each of these should, at this time, receive a blessing from the Creator through this one who comes as Michael. And so it is the will of God at this moment that these, who are his creations, would experience a gift of spiritual blessing from the Creator. Would you at this time now allow your own physical mind to be totally controlled by your spirit within in order that you may also receive a blessing.

Michael would at this time ask this one who comes as a dear child of the Creator, the one who is now known as Rhonda, to come and stand before this one who is channel and receive a blessing. Allow your hand to be placed in this hand. Would you at this time now be in prayer that you may be able to receive this blessing? You come to this which is the OMEGA as a spirit in a troubled body; but understand this...even as you have come in search of truth and healing, so it has been given to you. And so if you continue upon the Path as you search for Truth, you will find that you will grow in spirit and in physical strength. Be aware, also, that at this moment there is within your life that which is a change for the betterment of your life on earth. Receive this which is a blessing from the Creator. Know that at this very moment, your spirit within is being strengthened. Your physical mind is accepting of this which has been experienced. From this moment on your life will be lived as an example for the glory of God. Allow the light within you to so shine that others will see within your countenance the love of the Creator that shines forth through you. You are blessed. Be at peace with what you are and where you are at this moment. Go with the knowledge that you are loved by the one who is your Creator. Be at peace. Go in love.

And so this one comes as Michael again at this time to bring a blessing to the one who is a visitor to the group at this moment; and so it is asked that the one who is here as Emily would come forward and allow her hand to be placed in this hand. This one comes to you as Michael the Archangel and would tell you that it is indeed the will of the Creator that at this time in your life you are here for a purpose. You are here at this moment to receive a blessing from the Creator, with the knowledge that indeed you are from this time forward to be a guiding light for many who will come to your presence. Understand at this moment that you need have no concerns for the future. You must understand, too, that as you have been lead to this place at this time, it was the will of the Creator that it be so. And so if you will open your heart and your mind at this moment and allow the love and the spiritual energy that can only be given by the Creator to enter your body, to permeate that which is your entire being; and know that from this time forward you will experience that which is great spiritual growth. Be at peace with your life and know that you are in the love of the Creator. Go now in peace and love.

And so it is that Michael now would pronounce a blessing upon each of you. Michael comes now, fully aware that each of you come at this time as OMEGA; but be aware that each of you also come as individuals. Even as you are here at this moment, united as OMEGA, you stand within OMEGA as an individual with your problems as spirit in body, experiencing those things that only an individual can experience at this time. Be aware that Michael comes fully aware of this, fully aware of all the difficulties that each of you must undergo as spirit in body. From this moment on, accept this which will be an extra measure of spiritual energy that will help you to overcome all that is standing in the way of your becoming that which you would wish to be. Allow your light to shine at this moment, Know that you are, loved and that you are indeed in the care of the Creator. Peace be with you.

And so Michael comes at this time, mindful that it is necessary for each of you to receive information at this moment that will be of value to you. As has been known in the past, the one who has come to you as spirit in life form is again here in your midst. Be willing to accept this one who comes to you. This one who comes as Michael the Archangel can fully understand that perhaps it is difficult for you to fully understand, too, how this one can come to you as spirit in life form and yet communicate through this one who is channel. Allow this to be said to you. You have not the will at this moment to accept fully all that is possible with God. You must understand that all things must be given to you as it is known you have the ability to accept. And this one who comes as Michael would say, Be at peace with what is being given to you at this moment. Be aware that all is possible with the Creator. You are here as spirit in body, and if you would stop to believe that this could not be possible. ... how could you be here as a spirit living with a body....then if that is possible, isn't it true that all else could be possible, also? Life in itself as a spirit in body is a gift. It is also a gift to you who are here as OMEGA that the one who has come as SECHA has been allowed to come to you in the manner which has been allowed, to communicate. And so at this time Michael would ask that you open your hearts and minds and receive this one who comes as SECHA. It is God's will that you do so. And so it is that Michael would ask you to be at peace.

SECHA comes! SECHA is again here as one who is to give you information. SECHA is well aware of your concerns and has indeed been in this area in which you live for what you would consider a long time, seeking out information about the area. SECHA would ask that you be willing to accept information that is to be given at this time. SECHA has indeed the ability to see within the near future. SECHA has the ability to understand thoughts of others, even as has been the ability to do within the Star Region. And so SECHA is aware of your thoughts; SECHA is aware of your position; SECHA is aware of the area in which you live. And SECHA can tell you this... that there is among the population of this area in which you live much in the way of love. SECHA can tell you also that there are many within this population in which you live many who are seeking beyond that which you have recognized as what might be called 'organized religion' within the area. Many are indeed finding it within their hearts at this time to seek beyond that, to seek beyond the boundaries of that set with regard to seeking after spiritual things. And so you perhaps are not alone in your search. It is only that you have been able to progress further with regard to things spiritual.

But SECHA can also tell you this: that there is some concerning within the population in which you live about that which might occur as the result of a disaster. Perhaps this is a universal feeling at this time.

Perhaps this is something that is being instilled in the hearts of mankind through the Earth Planet. This is a way of preparation for all mankind with regard to that which is an impending disaster. And so SECHA will tell you that it is not to be that such a thing would happen upon this Earth Planet without mankind being aware that indeed such disaster is impending. What you have been taught with regard to spiritual preparation has indeed meant much to you. And now what you are to be taught with regard to physical preparation will be equally valuable. You who are spirits in body as OMEGA must understand, as has been told to you, that you must remain in a time of keeping your bodies strong in order to support the spirit within you to the degree that it will be able to complete its purpose on Earth at this time.

And so SECHA comes with this. Each of you have your own thoughts with regard to what you might be able to do with regard to the physical aspects at such time as a disaster would indeed strike the area in which you live. Each of you have given thought to this. And as you further allow your thoughts to expand, you will find yourself beginning to gather information that will help you to survive in the face of all odds. Be aware that your mental preparation is important for you at this moment. You are to understand that in order for you to be able to overcome the fear that will strike all humanity at the time of such a disaster as the chaos, in order for you to be able to overcome that fear, you must be strong in spirit, you must be strong physically. But also, that which is the mental aspect of your physical body must be prepared to deal with that which will come upon it in the way of fear. It is known that this is a necessity at this time for each of you. And so it is that it will be necessary for you to allow your thinking to expand with regard to your own preparation for the physical aspect of that which is the chaos. Simply allow your mind to run free, to begin to explore all you feel you could do at a time such as that. And SECHA will in turn begin again to work with each of you. And as you allow your minds to run free, to explore those areas where you would be able to help others to survive as well as yourself, physically, you will find that there is much that you can do that perhaps you had little knowledge of in the past. Many of you have great abilities that you little dream about at this moment, and they will be further expanded. And so it is that SECHA will work with you in those areas.

Allow SECHA to tell you this, also. It has been told to you that you would begin to allow your abilities to know what is in others' minds to again be strengthened, even as it was strengthened in the Star Region. You now must begin to experience that. And so in order to test that, in order to know that you are able to do so, look within the eyes of another and begin to achieve the ability to know what is in that person's thoughts. Again, you have been warned that this is an invasion of their privacy. You must never reveal what you receive through this. Their privacy is a God-given gift, and so you must not abuse this. This is simply preparation for that which is the time to come. Begin now to use that gift that you now have within your very being in order that you may be able to do what you must do when the time arrives.

SECHA would further tell you this. Within your own thinking, you will find it difficult to give up many of those things that you now hold dear to you as necessities. You will be able to give up those things when the time comes, but you must also be aware that at the time of such an upheaval in the Earth as the chaos, you will find many things that you look upon as necessities now will become luxuries. And so you will indeed be living a life style much different from what you have at this time. And so it would be to your advantage if you would start at this time to spend an occasional day of your life doing without those things that you consider necessities but which in essence are luxuries. Cease to use the energy form that you have for one day in your week. Cease to use a source of food for you for one time during your week. Cease to use all things that could perish, could be destroyed during the time of the chaos, and begin then to understand what it would be like. You must understand at this moment that you will need to seek out alternate ways of providing fuel, food, housing. There will be many, many who will be without homes; and so it is known to SECHA that upon the Earth Planet at this moment there are indeed many who are preparing to face that which is the chaos. You are but one of many. And so it will be that in the days to come your outreach will enable you to become so attuned to others who are now seeking to satisfy their own needs with regard to necessities for the time of the chaos that you will be able to communicate with those. And so it is that SECHA will continue to help you in those areas. SECHA will come again to give more specifics in the days to come. But SECHA has now given you many things that you must give attention to in order to be prepared. And as SECHA comes as perhaps a leader for you, know that SECHA has for you that which is love and caring, even as it has been known to you in the past. And so SECHA would at this time asks that you be at peace with what you know at this moment and seek to attune yourself more fully to the needs of the future. SECHA bids you farewell.

And so this one who comes as Michael asks that you keep these things in your heart. Attempt now to prepare physically even as you have prepared spiritually for that which is in the future. Be at peace. Know that you are loved.

JEY returns and would ask that each of you be in a state of prayer for those who are not in your midst at this moment, and ask that each one who is OMEGA will feel the great love which has been outpouring upon you at this time. There are many who are yet to come to your midst that indeed are preparing at this time, and you would be within the will of God to ask that you be made known to them in thought. Be at peace. Know that you are loved, and as the time comes for you to be in the meeting of the OMEGA in the future, know that there will be a necessity for others to communicate with you. It is known that as you now continue to receive information from the one who comes as Aster that that one will continue to give information of much value to you. And so it is that in the days to come you would be wise to seek information from that one also. Be at peace now with your lives and know that you are in the love of each one who has been here in spirit. Know that you are in the will of God. Go in peace.

Amen
