

April 9, 1993 — Topic: Christianity

John comes and would present information on the topic of Christianity, inasmuch as you have been in a time of observing the life and death of the one who was Jesus.

As you are fully aware, those who are now known as OMEGA have been aware of the Truth in the life of Jesus, for indeed he lived on Earth as reported in the Scriptures which you hold as sacred writings. What John wishes to discuss at this time is the continued interest in and dedication to the teachings of the one who was Jesus on Earth, for indeed that is important to the world as it exists.

First, know that as Jesus lived there was nothing written, for indeed it was known that the ones who became his followers would simply go into the world they knew and share the words of Jesus with others through the means they knew. . . . but mostly through that which was the teaching of those who came as interested individuals. What occurred was the eventual transmission of ideas and Truths through the written word to many who were outside the presence of the disciples; and those written words have in some manner become a part of the writings which you call the Bible today.

Understand this. . . . that what has occurred on Earth is essentially an overlooking of the simple truths that Jesus taught, for indeed he served mankind through simple teachings and miracles, as you would know them. What mankind has made of Christianity today is far different from the simple life and teachings of Jesus. And as mankind has forsaken the simplicity of the Truths that were taught by Jesus, there has also entered into Christianity the importance of wealth to those institutions that are called churches.

John can now understand more fully why Christianity has often failed to attract many, for it would appear that more stress is laid on the building of large edifices with emphasis on beauty of structure than on the sharing of God's Love and Truth as taught by Jesus.

Think of those to whom Jesus spoke while on Earth, as written in the Scriptures He worked with the poor, the ill, the humble ones who were interested in finding the Love and Peace that their Spirits Within were leading them to find. As mankind then later took over the idea of a centralized church and relegated the idea of the Christ to an icon set into the walls of the large buildings, it seemed that he was no longer the important facet of the faith that was called Christianity but rather simply a decoration that was venerated.

Has mankind forgotten that indeed the resurrection of the one who was the Christ allowed ALL to understand that he continued to exist. . . to live. . . even as the Spirit continues to live beyond the decay of the Earth body?

JEY has given you much information in the past with regard to the Truth about the one who was Jesus, as have others who have come in Spirit to work with you. But it remains for you and others who are OMEGA to share more openly those Truths which you know in order to cause a deeper thinking among mankind in order to worship in Spirit and in Truth.

John is at this time simply seeking to help you as you are struggling to know where to begin with regard to a book that can be disseminated to many. Know that John would attempt now to help you, even as you sleep. . . . to give ideas that are important for use in the book. John would suggest that inasmuch as it has been a responsibility of John in Spirit to provide the topics for discussion, know that indeed they are to become vital to the book. John will continue to help.

John wishes to share this further about the religion that is called Christianity. If all the huge buildings called churches today would become centers of Love and Concern for all humanity, how important they would become on the face of the Earth! Inasmuch as churches are supposed to be for help of mankind, it should be made known that indeed they are places for finding Truth, for finding Peace and Love. And if when that occurs, you would see the increase in the number of those who come to the doors of even your church and you would find within your hearts the words necessary to sing praises and thanks to the Creator .

John comes now to give thanks and praise for indeed you are aware of the Truth of Jesus and the importance of Love and Truth. John will continue to work with you, even in sleep, and provide additional strength when needed.
