JEY is here and it is known that the one who is in your presence does desire for JEY to come and communicate.

Allow JEY to say this. . .that there is within your midst many who are here to be with you and to strengthen you with the knowledge that as they are here you are given special attention with regard to spiritual energy. Be aware that as you are presented with this spiritual energy, your spirit within you is then able to communicate with you more readily; and you are aware that it has been possible for you to receive communication from your spirit. Be aware that there is within you that which is strengthening your very being, because as you allow the spiritual aspect of yourself to gain control of the physical aspect, you will become more empowered with those things which are necessary for you to grow in spirit, and necessary for you to increase the availability of the energy you need to give and opportunity for your body to do those things that are necessary for you to do on this Earth.

JEY does not wish to bore you with too many mundane things, but allow JEY to say that as each of you are understanding of that which is testing and opportunity upon the Earth, know that each of you have been the victim of many hardships in your life. But know, too, that as you have overcome anything that has appeared to be a hardship in your life, you have been strengthened. And so JEY would come to ask you now simply to be aware that any hardships that are placed in your way should not be barriers for your life but should be opportunities for your life, because they will eventually provide for you an extra bit of knowledge and intelligence that will help you overcome those things that lie in the future for you.

JEY would ask each of you to be aware of opportunity for you. Within your life on this Earth there are gates opening for you; and as you take advantage of those opportunities that open for you, you are growing in spirit and in the opportunity to help others. Often, as JEY is well aware. . .having lived as spirit in body. . .we tend to sidestep those things that appear to be an encroachment upon our lives, when in reality they are opportunities for each of you and for all of us who have been spirit in body at some time. We would encourage you to happily and readily accept such challenges as may appear before you, and take that opportunity to grow in spirit and accept that which will be an adjustment in your life which will further open opportunities as you proceed through the life on Earth. In other words, as you complete a success in one challenge, you will find that there will be many others opened to you which will provide for you more strength, more growth, more understanding, more knowledge than you would have had, had you not taken advantage of the opportunity which you were given.

JEY does not wish to continue on this subject, but wishes simply to ask you not to avoid that which may appear to be an incident in your life which would encroach upon your daily activity. JEY would ask you to be in prayer for each day of your life that you may be able to accept that which may be placed in your way, and know that it is placed there for a purpose.

At this time JEY wishes to allow others to communicate for indeed this is the purpose of this opportunity to communicate through voice. JEY would ask that you be in a time of meditation and allow one to come to communicate at this time. Know that JEY continues to be in the will of the Creator and JEY will continue to be gatekeeper for each of you. Be at peace.

BE AT PEACE NOW and know that this one comes in the will of the Creator to give information that will be of value to you. This one wishes to identify simply as MESSENGER OF THE CREATOR. As you are aware, you have received information at a recent time from this one. At this time this one will give information that will need to be shared with others; and so it is that this one will communicate through the voice of the one who is serving now as an instrument.

You have been made aware, now, of those happenings within the Earth that will be a foreboding of that which is to come. You are aware that you have been prepared for the time which is to occur on the Earth. You are aware, too, that this will take much energy on your part, physical energy as well as spiritual energy. What this one wishes to say to you and others who are OMEGA is this. . .do not at this time take lightly this information which is being given to you. We are coming now with the awareness that we who are in spirit and who have advanced in spirit have the opportunity to see beyond this which is the time limit that you know. We who are in spirit are not bound to time and space, and so we are able to understand and to know that which is to occur upon the Earth. And so we who come in spirit to you come in Love and in the will of the Creator to encourage you to further prepare for that time which is to be upon the Earth. We come, too, with the knowledge that many who are at this time OMEGA will find that it is not in their liking that such a thing can happen upon the Earth Plane. But we who are in spirit would encourage you to accept God's love at this time and realize that you who are here and who have accepted the mantle of OMEGA have been chosen in a previous time, a previous existence. It is not that this has just occurred on the Earth Plane but that you have been called together upon the Earth.

And so it is that we ask that you be in prayer about what has been given to you; that you be in prayer about the Truthfulness of such. And we who are in Spirit will endeavor to help you understand your purpose more fully as the time does indeed draw near. As you are aware, you have been encouraged to allow spirit to communicate with you through many avenues. . .but above all through that which is your own mental process. And so we who are in spirit would encourage you to open your heart and your mind and invite the spirit within you to communicate, invite those who are in spirit to communicate to you through that which is simply known to you as thought.

If you will invite such and then open your heart and mind to such, it will be so that it will occur.

What this one who comes as Messenger would say at this time would also be this. Beyond that which will be a time of cleansing of the Earth, there will be a period of time where there will be much chaos and destruction. But as the Earth and nature have a way of healing themselves, there will indeed come a time of great peace and great joy among those who have survived the chaos. We who are in spirit understand that there will indeed be a great sadness as many who are known to be loved ones will be separated from body and return to spirit; but perhaps you would find joy in knowing that in so doing, they will escape the physical torture that will come to many upon the Earth plane at that time. And so it will be a blessing to them that they can escape to spirit.

Those of you who remain as OMEGA will have the opportunity to do much good on the Earth for mankind. You will be prepared both in spirit and physical body to achieve that which is necessary. You have abilities that have been given to you, you have the strength to do much that has been given to you, and you will grow in physical and spiritual strength. This comes to you as a promise and it is known that it shall be so.

What this one would like to say to you this. . . that as you now are in a time of enjoying many opportunities on the Earth, you have many joys and the opportunity to enjoy many things of great beauty and great luxury. You must understand that you must prepare to forego those things at a time when the Earth will undergo such a drastic change. But you will carry with you the memory of such things; and as those who survive carry the memory of things of much value to them, it will be possible then for them to recreate those things that have been known to them during their lifetime. In other words, all will not be lost! They will be those who will be able to recreate those things they have enjoyed. And those who are left will open their hearts and minds to spirit in order that they will become more spiritual upon the Earth Plane. And will open a time of great peace and great joy and great spiritual growth as those who remain then begin a lifetime upon an Earth that has been cleansed and renewed, even though it has taken a great time of consternation to bring it to pass.

This is not something that is caused by spirit, but rather an internal happening within the Earth. As this one has said in times past, this will be heralded through the Universe due to the energy that is given off from the Earth; and note that as it occurs there will be many who will come from other parts of the Universe to observe that which is taking place. And they, in turn, will share with those who are left upon the Earth Plane many secrets which will enable those who are left to again rehabilitate the Earth in order for it to become a place of great beauty again. Know that those that come to observe you from other parts of the Universe have indeed been appalled by the amount of violence upon the Earth, by that which is happening to the Earth itself, by the mistreatment of this beautiful planet which exists within the Universe. Mankind has not been kind to the Planet; mankind has not been kind to each other. And so those who have come to observe do not understand these things that have been allowed to happen on the Earth. And once the cleansing has taken place, those who come from other parts of the Universe will then be willing to share and to help in the rehabilitation of the Earth. This should be of great comfort to you, of great joy to you, because they do come in Love and in great concern for the Earth. May you be at peace with this, and know that this one who comes as Messenger from the Creator does come with Love and with the knowledge that we who are in spirit are here to help you, and will help you in all cases regardless of what does occur. We will lend our help, our spiritual strength, to you. Be at peace with this and know that this one will come again to talk as it is necessary for it to be done. Be at peace and know that this one comes in Love.

JEY returns and would ask, that you keep these thoughts in your heart, for indeed they are of importance to you. JEY would ask at this time that you would receive another one who will come because it is important that you receive this information on this day.

Come now, you who are here and you who are communicating through spirit with this one. This one comes simply to bring a message of Love to all who are In OMEGA. Know that this one does come with the understanding that those of you who are spirit-in-body are indeed spirit who are simply learning a new lesson upon the Earth Plane. Know that this one comes to encourage you, to strengthen you, and to bring a message that will help you through any ordeal that may come in your future. And so accept this now as coming from the Spirit Realm, from that which is a source that has not yet communicated with you, but coming to you with the knowledge that you have been chosen, and that you will be directed, and that you will be given the strength that you need to overcome all that will face you during this lifetime on the Earth Plane.

And so it is that this spirit would acknowledge to you that there is within your presence at this time the presence of that which is the Creator of us all; and that has empowered this spirit now to come and communicate with you and to know that as you receive the presence of the Creator within your midst, you will receive this spirit also.

This one comes, not so much to identify self as simply to allow you to know that the presence of the Creator in your midst is the presence of the Eternal Spirit that can shed light upon not only one being within the Universe but upon all that exists in all universes. And so as the Eternal Spirit surrounds you, even so it surrounds all that exists in the Universe. The Eternal Spirit that you would call God is ever in your presence. There is never a moment when such spirit does not surround you. What is often missing is the willingness of those who are Spirit-in-body to listen quietly to that which the Eternal Spirit has to say and the guidance that can be received from that one. Know that Eternal Spirit is more than just an entity. It is ALL, it is everything. And as your spirit is of the Eternal Spirit, then your spirit is aware of the presence of the Eternal Spirit within your midst.

This one comes simply as one entity within the Spirit Realm who can assure you that you do receive the Love and Help of the Eternal Spirit when it is sought for. But even as you are not told what you must do on the Earth Plane, so will the Eternal Spirit not thrust self upon you; but you must seek and ask for the help of the Eternal Spirit, even as you seek and ask for the help of all others who are in spirit. Feel the presence now of that which is Holy within your midst. Feel the presence of spiritual light; feel the presence of eternal Love. Glory in the knowledge that you have received a special blessing at this time. And all who are OMEGA will know within their heart when they are presented with this information that which is being said through the instrument is Truth; and they, too, will receive a special blessing. And you who are here at this moment . . . be it known to you that you have been chosen to become a special instrument for the Eternal Spirit that you may more fully understand the value of the Spiritual Journey. You will, in turn, be able to fulfill your role upon the Earth at this time in a manner that will bring forth the opportunity for many to see within you that which is the Light of the Eternal Spirit emanating from your very being. Understand that simply because within the body which you have at this time there is a spirit from the Eternal Spirit, you have the opportunity to project the Love and Light and Joy that can come from the Eternal Spirit. LET IT BE SO, that you will be able to show forth the Love and the Light, the wisdom, the understanding, the knowledge that is given to you through this beautiful spirit within your body. And so this one comes, not so much to aggrandize self through an identity, but simply as a spirit that can advise you of the presence of the Eternal Spirit always within your lives. Accept this. Know that what has been given is Truth. And as you who are here leave this place, you will fully understand the value of this which has occurred. Be at Peace. Know that you will be carefully guided in the days to come. Go with the knowledge that indeed you are Loved.

JEY returns and would ask that you stay in this stage of meditation. JEY would ask that you be aware that you have been blessed; and even as you are blessed JEY has accepted, too, this blessing which was given JEY would ask that you attempt to keep within you hearts and minds that which has been given to you. JEY would say to Lisa . . . it has been necessary for you to be here. You have been given at this time special spiritual energy, a spiritual gift, that will so enhance your life that you will go forth from this day to provide others with a glimpse of the Love of God. It will shine forth from your very being. Allow it to be so. Do not hide your Light. Let it shine. Let it be known to others that you indeed bring the Love of the Creator to each one who comes into your presence. JEY would ask, too, that the one who is the instrument would allow JEY to say this... because of your adherence to the responsibility that has been placed upon you on the Earth Plane to be an instrument for the one who is the Creator, you have provided an opportunity for many on the Earth Plane to become aware of the Spirit Within; and JEY would tell you even now your Spirit within you is growing in ability to communicate with you. JEY would tell you at this time, too, to accept an outpouring of physical energy for you, that you may be able to fulfill the requirements of the day ahead. Be at peace and know that you will be provided with all that is necessary for you. Go now in Love. JEY will communicate in the days ahead. Be at peace and know that all that has been given at this time does come as Truth and does come in the will of the Creator. Be at peace.
