JEY is here and is aware of the necessity to communicate. Be comfortable with your own being and know that as you prepare to help others in OMEGA, so it shall be that we who are in Spirit will provide help for you. Be at peace with that and know that it is within the will of the Creator for you and for those of us in Spirit to proceed with the communications that have been given in the past. All is to come to a fruition that will encourage others who are seeking to allow their lives to be governed by the Spirit Within and to become aware of the strength of that Spirit. JEY would ask that you be prepared at this time to allow JEY to begin a message for those who will attend the gathering and also to allow the ones who have a message to also communicate. Be at peace now and allow that which is a state of meditation to be in your heart.

JEY is here and will continue. As those who are OMEGA gather for the purpose of exchanging information, know that there will be a gathering also of those who are in Spirit with you. Know, too, that there is at this time an importance for the gathering, for it has been told that the time of change is nearing and it is important that those who attend will be prepared mentally and spiritually to experience such a change.

Many on the Earth Plane are now in a state of wonderment with regard to the unusual happenings of the Earth; but also with the immensity of the discontent and violence that envelopes the Earth.

And so it is that JEY would ask that you now open your hearts and be receptive to information that will help you to further understand what is occurring and in order to give those of you who are OMEGA the advantage of receiving more complete information.

JEY would ask that you accept that which is to be forthcoming from the one who comes as Messenger of the Creator. It is with great thanks that JEY has been privileged to be a part of the OMEGA through the one who is the instrument, and it is with great thanks and praise that JEY can welcome the Messenger as that one who is Spirit comes with information that can provide an optimum of strength for those of you who are OMEGA.

Know that JEY will continue in your lives, and know that you will receive help from others who are in Spirit as you progress toward the fulfillment of your purpose on Earth at this time.

Be it understood that JEY does not come with a message of gloom but rather with a message of rejoicing, for it is with great joy that JEY can say that those of you who have accepted the responsibility of OMEGANS on Earth have indeed been able to fulfill the purpose for which you returned to Earth during this lifetime. Thus it is that even in the face of great change upon the Earth, you have been given a goal, a responsibility that will cause you to rejoice in the comprehension that indeed you have been chosen and that indeed you are at this time preparing to fully serve as instruments for the Creator on the Earth.

If you would allow, JEY wishes to say this. . . As you prepare for this which is a continuation of strengthening in Spirit and in Knowledge, know that there will be many activities that you will wish to examine very closely with regard to your activities on Earth at this time. Know also that when the time of testing does come, you must be single minded with regard to that which is to be required of you. JEY would ask that you be fully cognizant of this, for it is known that you who are a diverse people, but yet with one goal, have within your physical and mental capabilities many talents that can be channeled and directed to the fulfillment of your one objective on the Earth. And so JEY would ask that you be receptive of the information that is to be given by the one who comes as Messenger. Be at peace and know that JEY will come again. Go in love.

Make time now for this one to communicate. Know that this one comes as Messenger of the Creator and does come in the will of the Creator to help you prepare for that which is to come. Allow this one to bring to you a brief review of what your life has been on this Earth in this lifetime.

First, you came to Earth for a purpose at this time. That purpose was to find fulfillment in your preparation spiritually to serve as an instrument for the Creator during a time of great need on the Earth Plane. As a result of that, your footsteps have lead you to search and then accept that for which you were seeking. They have lead you to examine your own understanding of things spiritual: They have lead you to seek the comfort of others of like mind. They have become for you a vehicle for understanding and for accepting the knowledge that has been made available to you.

It is known that your lifetime has been one of fulfillment, for it has been in this lifetime on Earth that you have been able to use those knowledges from past existences to more fully understand, while you are spirit in body, the things of spiritual value. And what have those things of spiritual value been? This one can tell you this. . . that of all the information that has been given to you, the most important has been the information that has provided for you the awareness that indeed your Spirit Within is of the Creator and thus can empower you to understand and to accomplish much that could not have been done otherwise. It has enabled you to overcome fears and barriers that would have been insurmountable otherwise. In addition to this complete understanding, you have been fully imbued with the concept of Love and the importance of Love throughout the Universe. Know that the Love that is such a vital part of you does not simply limit itself to a feeling of closeness to another person on Earth; but it is an all-encompassing intangible that says to you that you are a part of the Creator and that the one who is the Creator knows and Loves you unconditionally...despite your mortal shortcomings. . . .that the Spirit within you is non-tarnishable because it is of the Creator.

Know that if you accept fully that your Spirit is of the Creator and that the Almighty and Eternal Spirit which you call God is perfect, then the Spirit Within must be that of perfection. This does not mean that every action you have taken on Earth in the material body has been perfect. Far from it. But you have learned and understand that there have been no accidents, and every action has been a necessity for you.

This one who is Messenger of the Creator would tell that within the hearts and minds of many, that is hard to understand, for how can it be that many people never commit a wrong in the sight of fellow man while others appear to be totally evil on Earth? Allow this one to tell this. Of course, if one can follow the dictates of the Spirit Within while Spirit-in-Body and proceed smoothly toward eventual reunion with Spirit again, their lives will be more satisfying for them. However, there are those who have come to Earth for many reasons, and there are those who are deeply affected by the circumstances into which they chose to be placed on the Earth. They are fulfilling their purpose; but they are no less important as Spirit to the Creator than those who have lead an unscathed life.

What this one is saying is this. . . .There are many who are OMEGA who have, in this life and in lives past, been associated with activities that were not above reproach. Yet, you have taken on the responsibility of OMEGA and have allowed your hearts and minds to be governed by Spirit Within. There are others who have been caught up in the violence and hatred of this mortal life and who would wish to know peace that would bring more fulfillment to their lives. At the time when the Earth is to know much change, those who have lived a lifetime of violence and hatred will be in great need of assistance from those who are more fully knowledgeable of our Creator and more aware of the guidance of Spirit.

This one comes to tell that you must open your hearts and minds to attempt to more fully understand all who are Spirit-in-Body and be willing to work with all who are Spirit-in-Body. Even as you have been associated with others of like mind and have been privileged to Truths that would give you peace and comfort, you too must be willing to accept others and allow them to see the Love of the Creator through you .

This one who comes as Messenger would say that this is to be the main challenge for each of you. . . that you would be accepting of ALL others when it is time for you to do so. You will not be allowed the luxury of choosing just those with whom you will work; and this must begin now in your lives, for know that within the physical body of every living being on Earth, there exists a spark of the Spirit known as the Eternal Spirit. And so to reiterate, this one who Is Messenger would say this. . . .that your importance is known in the name that was given. . . OMEGA.. . and that you have been faithful to your vow to serve as an instrument for the Creator during a time when it will be so needed on the Earth Plane; and that Love must be the guiding force that is needed during a time when you must accept all who will need your assistance.

Now, allow this one to give further information with regard to your gathering at this time.

Know that when two or three are gathered and call upon Spirit to be with you, there is an immediate recognition of the need in the Spirit Realm. And so as you gather in Love and for a Purpose, those who have served you well in Spirit will be with you. This will, in turn, generate much in the way of spiritual energy that will energize and help you to accomplish that for which you traveled to receive.

Know that the gathering is to be a time of renewal and revitalization, for there has been much time passed when you were asked to review the Truths that had been given and to attempt to more fully access the assistance of your Spirit Within. There have been many experiences in your lives during the time past that will need to be shared; and we who are in Spirit would seek to encourage you to tell about those things. It Is understood that many of you will find it necessary to simply listen; but know that it is important that you provide a time to share even the least of your inner feelings with others.

It is necessary that you meet in order to solidify your efforts and to become of one mind, for it is through this that you will find strength through simply knowing that even though you are physically and mentally different, you are one in Spirit and are not alone on this Earth Plane. We who are in Spirit do not coerce you to become robotic in your thinking and actions, but rather to provide an opportunity for Spirit to work through you.

Know that what has occurred in your lives as a result of the awareness of Truth has been comparable to that which happens to a beautiful creature that breaks forth from a cocoon. That which has appeared lifeless and dormant suddenly takes wing and provides beauty for the enjoyment of the eyes of mankind; and not only has such change been evident in your life, but you have provided much in the way of assistance to mankind that has provided beauty and light for then in return.

This one who is Messenger would not under-estimate the value to you and others of your transformation, for many have been touched and will continue to be touched by simple and beautiful Truth. Each heart you have touched with words of Truth and Love will accept that which is needed in their lives; and so it shall be a time when you will serve as an instrument of change that you will be able to provide spiritual strength and guidance that will be needed to help others.

Be aware that this one comes with much love for you and much joy at the recognition of Spiritual Awakening that has transformed your lives. We who are in Spirit rejoice, and we anticipate when each of you will return to Spirit and recognize the great progress that has been made. Know that it is for this reason that the one who is JOHN has been given the responsibility of communicating with you, for that spirit has been able to very clearly identify the areas in which you need to improve on the Earth Plane and will continue to do so. It is often important that one who so recently returned to Spirit and is able to relate very clearly to problems of the Earth body can communicate that information to one who can receive from Spirit. And so at this time this one who comes as Messenger would ask that the one who serves as instrument would allow more information to be given in the hours to come. Be at peace and know that all is proceeding as it should. Go in Love.

J E Y is here and will continue to communicate in the hours to come. Be prepared to communicate when the call is known. Go now in peace. Amen.
