

JANUARY 24, 1995 - OMEGA MEETING

JEY is here and comes with much for those of you who have gathered at this time. You have gathered for a purpose; and it is at this time that JEY will communicate those things that will help you be more fully aware of your purpose. As JEY is here it is with a concern for each of you, inasmuch as you have voiced those things for which you have a concern. What JEY is to say to you will alleviate the problems that you have with that which is to come.

JEY at this time has an opportunity to reach you through the instrument, and the one who is instrument now has the ability to allow you to fully understand what is sent through thought. You have the opportunity in turn to take that message and share it with others. It is not always necessary for those things which are written, but as you have the opportunity to share information with others, it is important that you do so.

Allow JEY to come with this message as well. Each of you who are here have at this time a concern upon your heart. Know that as you allow that concern to be put forth in thought, you will find that you will receive help with regard to the concern so voiced. It is not necessary for JEY at this time to address each of you individually, but even as JEY is here now to provide information it will be that what is said will help each of you.

First, allow it to be known that JEY does indeed come in the will of the Creator and does come in regard to OMEGA. JEY does not come for any reason other than to bring Truth and to give you information that will be of assistance to you. So with that in mind, and with your acceptance of such, JEY will begin the information for you.

Each of you have voiced some concern about preparation for that which is to come.. .preparation that will provide for your survival on the Earth Plane, even as you are concerned with doing the will of the Creator as you are Spirit-in-Body. Allow JEY to say that even as you have voiced those concerns, you have also been able to provide a solution for them; and so you must understand that you have the ability to come to a decision with regard to the concerns that you have at this time. It is not impossible for you to do so. In other words, as you have talked about those things that would appear to be shortages on the Earth, know that you have...in some discussion...been able to decide what you could do with regard to providing such at a time when it is needed.

We who are in Spirit do not see that you will in any way be denied the necessities of life during a time of Chaos. It is the will of the Creator that you have the opportunity to access those things that will provide you necessities. However, JEY will say that this does not mean that you are simply to ignore the fact that you have been told to prepare; in other words, know that it will not be thrown into your hands. You are to prepare and to receive at this time those things that are needed for survival.

We who are in Spirit would tell that as you now have a concern with those things that relate to other members of your families, know that it is to be important that you have to give them. However, know that not all will accept, and that is their responsibility. Know that not all will elect to remain on the Earth Plane during a time of Chaos. But know that those of you who have chosen to do so will have the ability to overcome the obstacles that are put in your way.

What JEY would say to you is this, too. Perhaps those who do not choose to accept at this time would be more willing to return to the Spirit Realm, and have the opportunity to work from the Spirit Realm with those of you who remain. Do not let this sadden you, for that is their decision to make. You are simply to know that it is your Spirit that has made the decision to remain on the Earth Plane, and other may very well choose to return to Spirit. This is not to be a concern for you. As you are aware, all Spirits will return to the Creator; and if there are those who elect to return during the time of Chaos that does not mean that they have not completed their purpose on Earth. Rather, it is that they have chosen not to remain here during the time of Chaos.

Accept their decision. Know that it is not your right to make a decision for them. You simply have the opportunity to share what you have accepted as Truth. This does not mean that they will accept those same things.

Many of you will at this time also voice a concern about preparation with regard to your own mental thinking in connection with the Chaos. Do not be concerned fully about that, but know that as you have accepted while in the Spirit Realm to return here at this time, your Spirit Within will be able to control your mental process during the time of conditions that you would call chaos. And so with that in mind, you need have no fear. Your mental self will indeed acquiesce to your Spirit Within. So it will be.

We who are in Spirit are also aware that there are those within OMEGA who have more or less withdrawn from the idea that there will be a chaos, that Earth disturbance that will require the action for which you came to Earth... providing opportunity for those in Spirit to give you information that will help you in the survival of many. Know as those who have chosen in Spirit to be OMEGA on the Earth Plane, and those who are turning away at this time and not accepting information that is given will have to deal with that not only here as Spirit-in-Body, but also when those return to Spirit. They will, of course, be given the opportunity to serve from the realm of Spirit but they did choose to become OMEGA. And with that in mind, JEY would say that if you are aware of one who is OMEGA who does not accept that it is the responsibility to prepare both mentally and physical for that which is to come, simply allow your positive thoughts to go out to them. Allow your prayers be sent forth to them, for as prayers are said those thoughts of positive energy will interrupt the negative energy which they feel at this time.

You are to understand that as you gather here, you have brought with you a positive energy at this time. JEY is aware of the great depth of dedication which you have to your mission upon Earth. Know that positive energy is filling self at this time. Be aware that you are willing to accept such energy. It is through the outpouring of such energy that you will be fully prepared for that which is ahead. At this time JEY would ask that you be willing to allow another to come to communicate with you, for there is additional information that is needed for you. And so if it is your acceptance at this time, JEY will allow that one to come.

THIS ONE COMES WITH LOVE AND WITH THE ADMONITION that you are to receive only that which is Truth. In other words, do not open your hearts and minds to those things of a negative nature. Open your hearts and minds only to those things of Truth. This one will tell you that it is an opportunity now to give you information provided by those in the Spirit Realm for the purpose of encouraging you in your journey and strengthening you in your journey as well. Know that this one does come as a MESSENGER OF THE CREATOR; but be aware, too, that this one has not spoken with you in times past. And this one does come with that which could be considered a 'lesson' for you at this time.

It is in the will of the Creator that this message is brought; and it is for your strengthening that this information is given. Be at peace with that. We who are in Spirit have followed your journey during this time upon the Earth Plane.. .the journey that has led you to this point at this time. You have never been forgotten. You have, of course, undergone many trials and temptations; but always your footsteps have led you toward the finding of Truth. Somehow your Spirit Within has been able to guide you. And so it is that you have gathered here at this time, and it is important that you be aware that it is only because of your Spirit Within you that you have been able to seek for and find the Truth that has led you and understand your purpose upon Earth.

This one would tell you that you have the opportunity now to receive information that will become helpful to you in your attempting to understand that which may be the nearness of the chaos. And so this one would ask you to be prayerful. Attempt to remain in a state of meditation while this information is given to you.

You are fully aware of many changes upon the Earth and within the Earth. You are aware of much that you have read with regard to those changes that will take place in the future. You are accepting now of much You are prepared now to receive without fear. And so this One has the opportunity now to give this information with regard to the Chaos.

We who are in Spirit see that which is a complete change in the position of the Earth within a short period of time. We do have that vision. We do see that it can happen. We know that when this one speak of a 'short period of time' it is from a reference of the Spirit Realm; but within the Earth Time It would appear to those of us who are in Spirit that you are aware that you have been told that you may perhaps have a span of a few years in which this will happen. We now are aware that there is not a long period of time with regard to a number of years. We foresee the beginning of the complete Earth Change within a time of PERHAPS THREE YEARS, Earth time We would not give you this information were it not possible for us to see into the future. You have now a time frame in which you can prepare; but allow this one to say that beyond preparing for physical survival, you must prepare for a Spiritual Renewal from this day forward. You must prepare for Emotional survival.

You who are sitting here in comfort at this time feel that you are fully prepared at this time. But know that if you were to see that which is the area in which you live totally devastated by a change in the movement of the Earth, you would at this moment be overcome by emotion. This one will say that you are to be strengthened; but you must daily seek for strengthening.

Does it not seem strange to you that here you are sitting in a time of meditation, in a time of seeking Truth from Spirit, and we who are in Spirit are simply advising you that this will not continue? This does seem to be a time when mankind cannot understand what is occurring upon Earth. Mankind prepares and finds that such preparation was not enough. Mankind attempts to look forward to that which is tomorrow and does not understand that there may never be a tomorrow. Mankind seeks to accept that things will always be as they are today, but know that this cannot be true. Know that even with all that mankind has been able to perform upon the Earth, this will not be enough to prevent the movement upon the Earth that will cause a chaos.

We who are in Spirit do come in sorrow as a result of those things which are happening in the Earth. We would tell you again, this is not a Spiritual event. It is a physical happening. We who are in Spirit come to strengthen you in order that you may be able to help during this time of a physical happening. It is not our desire that those things that mankind has built with their hands would be destroyed; but know that mankind does not control the inner action of the Earth; nor do we who are in Spirit control the physical aspects of the Earth. We simply come to help those of you who are here to better prepare for that which is to come.

We would ask you to remain in a time of meditation and allow this one to attempt to give you that which would be a preview of Spiritual insight of that which might occur. Be at peace with this and know that this one comes in Love and would simply ask that you remain in a time of meditation.

This one would ask you to visualize that which is the Earth upon which you live. It is a planet of much beauty. It is a planet where the water on the Earth covers much of the planet. This one who is here to bring you this visual image of what may occur would ask you to simply visualize this. The Earth which is rotating, as you well know, suddenly comes out of control. No longer is the rotation which has been occurring for many eons taking place... that rotation that has allowed man to live in peace and safety upon the Earth. Suddenly there is a vast 'jarring' and the Earth seems to stand still.

And then immediately it would do what you would call simply a 'flop'. That which you consider to be a 'rotation' has no part in a 'normal rotation'. It would begin a new type of rotation. In other words, the Earth will not spin totally out of control within the Universe. It will pick up a different rotation and will at that time simply continue to rotate in a new direction. Can you imagine then what will occur at that time when there is an opportunity for the Earth to right itself and continue in a new direction? All things upon the Earth will shift as well. There will be a complete movement of all that is upon the Earth; and those things which are now covered by water will in many instances be uncovered; and those things which will arise will force the water which covered them over other parts of the Earth that are not now covered, thereby destroying much that mankind has made. This would not, of course, provide a sense of security for anyone on the Earth Plane.

At this time now you have an opportunity to simply attempt, in your own mind, to visualize what might occur to various parts of the Earth... even as those things which have been hidden under the water become visible to the eye again. We who are in Spirit see this not as a destruction of the Earth but rather as a time of cleansing of the Earth. Know that the Earth will indeed remain as a part of the Universe. The Earth will simply change its face; in other words. the land may be covered by water and where there is water. there may be land. You may experience at that time a feeling of fear, but know it should be a time of much elation, for you will have survived. You will have survived that which has been a change of the direction of the Earth. Give thanks and praise for that, for you have known, throughout many times in the Spirit Realm that you would be here to witness this. Give thanks and praise that you have found your way, that you have become a part of OMEGA. And we who are in Spirit will work to strengthen you, to encourage you, to help you overcome all the things that may stand in your way to becoming an instrument for good upon the Earth during that time.

This one would ask simply that you accept what has been said to you. It has been brought to you with Love.. .not to frighten but rather to prepare.

And so this one would say.. .keep these things In your heart and know that as you are here at this time you were led here for a purpose. Share these things with others who have accepted the mantle of OMEGA and know that they, too, must understand what is to occur. Be at peace with this and know that this one will return as there is a need. Go now in Love and know that this one has communicated in the will of the Creator. Be at peace.

JEY returns and would ask that you accept what has been said to you. You have been blessed inasmuch as you have been provided with Information that will help you prepare for that time. And so it is that even as that event occurs. you will not be so unguarded in your thinking that you will not know what is occurring. Be at Peace and know that we who are in Spirit will be with you and come to communicate in the days ahead. Know that you may ask for help when there is a necessity. Go now in Love and Peace. AMEN.
