

JEY and ALLA October 21, 1998

JEY is here, and JEY does come to simply give you encouragement and also to express for you that you are indeed in the will of the Creator as you have this opportunity to gather in this small group. JEY does come in the will of our Creator and does come with Love for each of you.

As you have been in a time of discussion, know that JEY is well aware of the impact of the words that have been spoken by ALLA on that which is your own thinking. Know that you too have the opportunity, each one, to allow those who in are spirit to come and communicate with you through that which is the thought process.

Often when you have a need for information it is possible for you, in a time of quiet, to receive that which would be the enlightening that you need, and so it is important that you take that time daily to seek after that which is the help that you need in your life through that which is a time of quiet, with the purpose of seeking after information that will help you to deal with those problems that face you each day or with those understandings that you need each day.

JEY, at this time comes to allow that one who is ALLA to once again come and communicate with you, and so if it is your will, JEY would so allow. Be at Peace.

ALLA is here, and ALLA comes now with much Love for you, and does give thanks that you have had the opportunity to learn more from those words that were spoken through the voice of this one so many years ago in your lifetime. It is important that you continue to read those lessons that were given, for there is much truth in that which was spoken. Allow ALLA at this time to address the one thing that is of importance as well in this meeting, and that is the opportunity to be aware of that which is healing of the human body through that which is spiritual source.

It is important that the one who is here in need of healing would simply allow that energy to become a part of his own body, that it may continue to work within his body and allow that which is the healing to take place.

There is an opportunity oftentimes for the those who have been given the gift of healing to be able to use that gift, and it is only through the use of such a gift, as healing or other spiritual gifts that one may have, that the ability to further use that gift is enlarged. In other words, you simply grow by giving away, and so it is at this time, that as one allows the energy to be so given to help another, then the energy is then compounded and is made possible that others may be helped.

ALLA would suggest to each of you that you have many spiritual gifts that you could use, and so it is important for you to learn about those gifts, and in the times to come when there is the opportunity for the one who is ALLA to again come and give information, ALLA would be pleased to attempt to help you with an understanding of the spiritual gifts that you have. And so with that in mind, ALLA would simply ask you be at prayer between times now when you will be meeting, and at that time when you will meet again, ALLA will take that opportunity to once again come and communicate with you and attempt to share with you knowledge of those spiritual gifts which you have in your own personal body. It is important that you be aware that the spirit within you is one of much strength and can help in the use of your spiritual gifts. Be at peace with that, and ALLA would simply ask you to leave this place at this time with the knowledge that you have indeed been able to share in much truth that has been given in times past. Accept that, and know that ALLA does come in the will of the Creator, and does come with knowledge of those things that were spoken of in this time of meeting. Be at Peace, go in Love, and know that your lives are made stronger on earth by that which is TRUTH. Go now in Love.

JEY returns, and would say to you that the one who is ALLA is one of much Love, and does always come with Truth, and would ask that you simply be reminded that you are to remain in a time of simply seeking for the Truth that you will be able to learn from ALLA in times to come.

Be now at peace with that which is your lives, and know that you are seeking after Truth, and as you seek, you shall find. Go now in Love. Amen.
