JEY is here. Be aware that JEY comes to your midst to be with you in this time of meeting; but also be aware of this. As you have been in a time of discussing those values to which you have been alert, know that it is important that JEY touch upon that which has become important at this moment. JEY does come with Love and does come in the will of our Creator and will attempt to give information that will help you in understanding those things that are occurring upon the Earth at this time.

As JEY is aware, there is at this time conflict that will create much in the way of harm on the Earth in the days to come. It is important that you spend time in prayer and send out your thoughts of a positive nature, that they may be gathered with other thoughts that are going out from the Spirit Realm and from others around the Earth Plane. It is important that you recognize that there is the impetus for that which will be a great war upon the Earth if events continue as they are at this time. It is the knowledge of those of us who are in Spirit that there are many areas upon the Earth Plane at this moment that do look upon a creation of war that will indeed entangle all who are upon the Earth in its claws. It is important that you be at peace with the knowledge that you have, but that you ask for the help you can receive through sending forth the energy of your thoughts at this time.

It does not take much for mankind to begin war upon the Earth. It is simply a matter of wanting to control others that is necessary for the one who would begin a war to begin to control others; and those who they will begin to control will not accept that and will begin seeking to settle a conflict through the only way they know. It is important for you to understand that as mankind then relies only upon thoughts of self, know they will create that which will become all encompassing upon the Earth. And so it is important that you keep in mind that as you send forth your thoughts of peace, your prayers for peace, know they will be heard throughout this which is the Earth upon which you live. You have the opportunity to be an instrument for good. Allow it to be done.

It is at this time that JEY can come to you, because you are in a time of accepting those bits of information that can be given to you through Spirit. Know that as you have learned to trust the Spirit Within you, you are also able then to trust those of us who are in the Spirit Realm who have come for these many times to attempt to help you along your Spiritual Journey. We come now, in the will of our Creator, to further help you in order that you in turn may be able to help those upon the Earth on which you live. It is important. It is imperative. Know that JEY comes with Love for each of you, but does come now with concern for the Earth. Be at Peace. Know that JEY has indeed come in the will of the Creator and does seek to bring Peace on the Earth, even as you will do with your prayers. Go now in Love. Know that JEY has come in Peace. AMEN.
