JEY is here and does come now, for there is a need at this time for communication. Be at peace. Know that JEY comes in the will of the Creator and does come to you with much Love.

It has been a time of great joy for JEY to be in this meeting at this time, for indeed you have found yourself in a surrounding that does bring peace and joy to your very heart; and so JEY would ask you simply to remain in meditation and allow this one to give information that will be helpful to you.

JEY is aware of the thoughts that you send forth and is aware that there is a need for you to have confirmation of those things which you have read. But know, too, that as you are aware, the one who has given you information during this time of reading has come to you as one who is the Messenger, and you must be aware that one does come with Truth and in Truth. And so JEY will simply attempt to clarify some things in your physical minds at this point that will help you to be at ease and at peace with what you now know and what you have read.

It is important for you to understand that you have been preparing for these many years, Earth time, for that which is indeed in the near future. It is important for you to accept that you have agreed to be here to act as that which is OMEGA, for many, many times in past lives when it was known that this time would come upon the Earth. You have agreed to be here. And so it is that you are approaching the time where you will need to use all that you know to be the spiritual aspect of self. It will not be your physical and mental aspect that will be totally important for you during the time of changes, but it will be the spiritual strength of you that will help you to fulfill all that is necessary for you in this life at that time. It is important, too, for you to understand that those in the Spirit Realm do have a view of that which is to come, but JEY cannot at this time give you an exact date for indeed JEY does not have the ability to give you an exact date upon the Earth. Still those of us in the Spirit Realm are well aware of the chaos that is now occurring upon the Earth. Simply because it has not occurred in the area in which you live does not mean that it is not occurring. There are those areas of the Earth where many are being tested beyond their endurance by those things of a natural disaster that is taking place, and by those things of a warring disaster that is taking place. Through this which is your Earth there are those who do not have the capacity to love others, either within their nation nor their area. You do not have to live in such a situation as this. Yet, you are well aware of that which has been the very recent warring within the country of which you are well aware, now called Yugoslavia. You are well aware of that war. Know that it is NOT the will of the Creator that such destruction, such killing that has occurred there should occur; but again mankind has not learned to Love. Mankind seems to thrive on hate and destruction; and this of course will be one of those things of a negative nature that will bring about additional chaos upon the Earth.

What JEY is attempting to say to you is this. Do not be overly concerned about what IS TO BE but about WHAT IS at this time. See what is occurring upon the Earth at this time, and you will know that this is what IS to be, a continuation of what is occurring upon the Earth. Know that even though you live upon this which is a very stable and beautiful planet, this which is your Earth cannot be successful in continuing to give mankind all that is needed in a positive way IF these things of a negative nature continue to be given into the Earth. You must know that mankind has lost that which is good upon the Earth. Mankind, on the other hand, has the opportunity to turn around those things of a negative nature.

It has been known that in this which has been your group there have been thoughts with regard to the prayers that have gone forth in regard to that which you have read, in regard to that which you have heard in other areas. Know that indeed prayer is so important now as it has been in the past; but know, too, that if you simply will be open and aware of all that is occurring upon the Earth, there are so many in body upon the Earth whose spirits are not able to control the actions of the body and so JEY would ask you to remember everyone who is Spirit-in-Body on the Earth, that their spirit may become strong and that it may be able to deal with the negative actions that the body and mind face upon the Earth. What you in the OMEGA group upon the Earth can be deeply involved in is your continuing prayer for those who are Spirit-in-Body.... simply that their spirits may be strengthened in order to be able to have greater access to that which is the mental aspect of the body upon Earth.

JEY does not come to simply teach you but simply to encourage you to accept what you know to be Truth. Ask again that you may be able to discern the Truth in those things that you read and things that you hear. . the things that you see occurring. Your spirit will be able to affirm to you that what you are seeing and hearing is indeed Truth, if it be so. YOU have the responsibility, as Spirit-in-Body, to allow your spirit to help you to control that which you will accept as Truth upon the Earth. YOU are responsible as a physical body in that you will allow your spirit to guide you.

JEY, who has come as Guardian of Spirit for the one who is Louise, does not have full control over this which is her actions upon the Earth; but JEY does encourage her thinking in order that she will allow her spirit within to be more forceful in the living of her life each day upon the Earth. So it should be with each of you who are here at this time. As you will allow your Spirit to be in control each day of your life, you will be able to fully understand those things that are being shown to you through all avenues of information that you can receive on the Earth at this time. Do not be fearful. You who are here may be, at some time, weak in body, but you have a spirit of great strength. Else you would not be here. You would not have agreed to come and serve on the Earth at this time if you were not a spirit of great strength, great beauty, and great control. You can deal with whatever is ahead of you on the Earth at this time. You are not to be fearful; you are not to know defeat. Rather, you are to be strengthened, to be a pillar of strength at this time upon the Earth. Give thanks to our Creator that you are here and that you have the knowledge that you have at this time, for without that knowledge you would be another Spirit in Body who does not know fully their way upon the Earth. Give thanks for the journey that you are taking; give thanks for the knowledge of your relationship with the Creator of all that is.

JEY comes in Love at this time, with the knowledge that you indeed can feel the Love of our Creator and you can feel the peace that love can bring. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
