JEY is here and does come now with thanksgiving for those who are gathered here at this time to seek after Truth and Understanding and to share your Love with each other. JEY is well aware of that which is the need for each of you known upon this Earth as OMEGA to meet with each other and to be reinforced in your understanding of those things of Truth which have been given to you down through these many times that you have been meeting.

What JEY wishes to say at this time as well is this---that as you are gathered, it is important that you continue not only to seek after Truth but to seek for a deeper Understanding of your relationship to all things that are created. It is important that you understand your relationship to your Creator and to ALL things that are indeed a part of the Universe in which you live. It is now a time for you to become more at One with all that is, with all that has ever been, and all that is to be. You are to feel a Oneness with all these things that comprise the Earth upon which you live, and the Universe of which you are a part. And so at this time JEY would encourage each of you to think about your relationship with all that is at this time. And with the knowledge that indeed this which is your body...this which houses the spirit...does indeed have a part to play in your life upon the Earth, as does your Spirit. And so with that in mind, JEY would simply ask that you be at Peace now and allow another to come and communicate with you, for it is a time where you do have the opportunity not only to learn more at this time but to become well grounded in those things which you have already learned and which have become knowledge to you. And so JEY would simply ask that you would confirm in your own heart and mind that you will allow this one to come and communicate with you. Be at peace.

MAY THAT WHICH IS THE PEACE OF THE ONE WHO IS OUR CREATOR BE WITH YOU AT THIS TIME, SURROUND YOU, HOLD YOU IN THE LOVE OF THAT WHICH IS OUR CREATOR.

It is important that this one come and spend time with you at this time within your Earth life, for it is the knowledge of this one that there will be ahead for you those times when indeed you may be tested. But know that as you come to that point, you will find that the truths you have been given will carry through and help you in all that you must undertake at any time upon the Earth as Spirit-in-Body. And this one will simply come and identify to you as the one who does come as the MESSENGER OF THE CREATOR and does come in the will of the Creator and does come to you with Love, for it is always important for us to allow you to know of our Love for you and to know that we are concerned for all of mankind upon the Earth. Indeed, for within everyone who lives upon the Earth there is that spark which is of the Creator; and therefore we who are in Spirit and serve the will of our Creator do have the concern for each Spirit which resides upon the Earth at this time.

Allow this one to address you in this way. You have sought after those things of Truth. You have found that for which you sought. In other words as have an understanding of that which is the scripture which you hold to be truth upon the Earth, you have found that which is the "'Pearl of Great Price' which you have often thought of quoting to others when there has been a time of great joy of finding something of great importance. YOU have found in this which is your journey a 'Pearl of Great Price'. Do not let this become a thing that you would put back into safe keeping and simply never think to draw it forth except at times where you may have an opportunity to attend a meeting or to discuss with someone else. Know that this is something that you need to wear upon your physical self each day; thought it may not be a tangible thing it is something that you can wear upon your being each day. It is indeed a 'Pearl of Great Price'...the Truth that you have, the Knowledge that you now have. Cherish this, because it is of great importance to you; and it will help you to understand more fully day by day that which is your own part within the Universe in which you live.

As you have been told in times past, you were indeed a part of the Creator from the time of all beginning, and as your Spirit then was released and set forth to a time where it was to know and learn many things, you are aware of the value of that Spirit. As you understand it to be, you can accept that indeed within you is that which is a part of the Creator of all things and you will know the value of your Spirit.

But look upon ALL others who surround you! Within everyone who comes into your presence, no matter when it may be....look upon them, too, and know that within the confines of their body there is that which is part of the Creator...that which is of the Creator. How can you help but love all who come into your presence?

It is known that all who are Spirit in Body allow the mental aspect of you to make judgments upon others. This is not the role that you must play upon the Earth Plane. You accept others who are Spirit in Body, no matter what role they play upon the Earth. It is important that you look within them, that you cherish the knowledge that you have in order to form a relationship with others who are Spirit in Body as well. And so as you accept that, we will go further.

You have been privileged to live upon the Earth Plane, and your footsteps have found you within a most beautiful part of the Earth Plane. Be thankful for that. Know that you have been blessed to live in a land which does afford you an opportunity to be surrounded not only with beauty but also with a freedom that will allow you to move through others parts of the Earth upon which you live. Be thankful for that. This provides you an opportunity to find out more about your relationship with the Earth upon which you live and others with whom you live upon this Earth.

And as you have the opportunity and the privilege of learning more about the Universe about which you live from those who come to you in Spirit, you are well aware that there are others who live upon other bodies within the Universe that do indeed live as Spirit in Body, although it may not be such a body as you have experienced in this lifetime upon the Earth. You have been visited and have had communication from others who have come from afar to communicate with you. Be aware that they are as much in tune with the spiritual aspect of them as you are with the spiritual aspect of you. Do not be alarmed at the fact that there are those who do not believe that there are others within this Universe and other Universes in which you live that do have the capability of communicating with you. Know that there are others who do have the ability not only to communicate through your own thought, but they also have the ability to visit the Earth upon which you live. It is important that you not confine yourself into thinking there is an entity only in the community in which you live...within the state in which you live...within the country in which you live. You are indeed important in not only these areas but also on the entire Earth upon which you live...and beyond that the Universe and Universes in which you live. You are important in all things that exist. You never cease to be important, for as your Spirit is of the Creator that Spirit lives on forever. Only that which is the physical aspect of you will return to the Earth from which it came. But you must be aware that the Spirit, as it will live forever....that you give it the opportunity to experience all that it can while it is your Spirit within this body which you inhabit. You have the opportunity, you have the knowledge, you have the information that you need at this time to afford the spirit all the kinds of learning that it can possibly upon this Earth.

What this one would further say to you is this. It is NOT important that you achieve so many things upon this Earth but rather that you open your heart and your mind and allow those things that will bring learning to your Spirit that is needed at this time. You are all well aware that you are here for one big purpose in this life, and that is that you are to serve upon the Earth at this time during many kinds of chaos that happen, and you are well aware of that. But in addition, you are here to allow your Spirit to have the experiences that are necessary for it to achieve that for which it came. It is noticeable upon the Earth at this time that there are many who are beginning to reach out to others who may not have the knowledge that is important. Keep in mind that you have the opportunity now to simply pray for the strength of those who have the ability to reach out to many people. It is important that you send forth the energy of your thoughts to those, and know that even as you do so your thoughts can be intercepted by others upon the Earth Plane who may be in need of help. Send out your thoughts to others that you are willing at this time to share with them that which is the knowledge that you have, and as you send forth those thoughts, they become a part then of the energy stream that flows through all that is. Others who are seeking and have not yet found that for which they seek will be able to intercept the thoughts that you send and they will be able to find you or the one who has the ability to share the thoughts that embody the knowledge that is needed upon the Earth.

Give praise to our Creator for this time that you enjoy upon the Earth Plane. You have been given a special privilege. You have been given a special responsibility; but know that also with the responsibility that you accept you are indeed given special care. And that is why those of us who are in Spirit have been assigned the responsibility of coming to share with you, to attempt to guide you, to attempt to encourage you, in that you may be able to fulfill all that you have the ability to fulfill upon this Earth. Know that all things that do indeed provide for the growth and joy of your Spirit will indeed bear fruit upon the Earth and also in the Spirit Realm. Be patient with others who come to you as Spirit in Body. Be willing to share with them; be willing to show your love toward them. Many have not been privileged to feel that Love or to have that information; but you who have this knowledge, this information have the ability to share with each one who comes into your presence. If that which is a motion is made toward you that will enable you to begin to share with them, take advantage of this, for everyone who does begin to share with you their thoughts are indeed hungry for one with which they may communicate.

And so this one has simply come to share these thoughts with you, but above all to encourage you to be more open to the sharing of information which you have. Others will be made known to you. You will know when you can share. You will know that those who come to you will indeed be accepting of the Truths that you can share with them. Each of you who are here do represent the opportunity to work in different elements of your society within your location. Therefore, each of you have the opportunity to share, to give, to be able to relate to others who come into your midst. And so at this time this one would simply ask that you accept a blessing from this one who has come as Messenger for the Creator, and would ask that you at this time call forth your Spirit and allow your Spirit to accept this blessing, for indeed it will encourage and strengthen your physical aspect and your Spirit will rejoice. And so now call forth your Spirit for the blessing that is to be given.

Almighty Creator of all that is we are at this time willing to accept for our Spirit Within and for our physical self the blessing that can be poured upon us at this moment. Allow our Spirit to control our thoughts at this very moment, and allow our Spirit to intercede for us as we come as Spirit in body. May that which is the Love of all who are in the Spirit Realm and all who have known you who are on the Earth at this time as Spirit in Body and now reside in the Spirit Realm...may the love they can send to you at this moment surround you, become a part of you so that you are deeply aware of all that can be given to you at this time. Each of you have at some time known the Love of those who are surrounding you at this moment, and you can indeed continue to feel that Love.

And so now in a time of quiet this one would ask you to receive this Love and would ask that the Love of the Creator would surround us, go with us as we continue upon this Life's journey. And now this one would simply say to you that you have been blessed, and would ask that you be at peace and know that you are Loved.

JEY returns and would at this time give thanks for that which has been received and would ask you in the days to come to attempt to be all that you can be upon the Earth as you continue to live a Spirit in Body. Do not be in a time of confusion; do not be in a time of thinking you are not important, for indeed all that is of the Creator is of great importance. Go now in Love and know that you will indeed feel the peace of the Creator of All Things. Amen.
