JEY is here and is in your midst and does come with much Love, and would ask you to simply remain in a time of meditation. It is always the joy of this one who comes to you as Guardian of Spirit for the one who is voice and also as gatekeeper for the OMEGA to come to be with you, for it has been the joy of JEY through many months in times past to be a part of that which you know as your group. JEY has been given the opportunity to share with you, to work with you, to be a part of all that you are at this time; and JEY does again give thanks for that opportunity.

At this time allow JEY to say that as you have been in a time of discussing that which would relate to your Spiritual growth upon the Earth Plane, you have indeed reached that point where you are able to allow the Spirit Within to guide your thinking. That has been what has been necessary for you throughout this time of searching... to allow the Spirit Within you to become the guardian of your thoughts, of your actions. And so as you have reached this point in your life in your journey upon the Earth, you have reached that which has perhaps been a zenith for you. You have indeed increased your Spiritual understanding and allowed the Spirit Within you to become a Spirit of great strength. JEY would ask that you simply continue in your journey but with the understanding that you now have the ability to allow your Spirit to control your life upon the Earth. This is not to say that you still will not make decisions based on those things that occur to you as a physical being, but that you will allow your Spirit to help you in making those decisions. This will then enable you who are Spirit-in-Body to further undergo those experiences upon this Earth that will have the most advantage for the Spirit Within you. You will not be groping darkly for those opportunities that will allow your Spirit to have the experiences that it needs. But you will then be able to allow that Spirit to guide you in those directions that will indeed provide for the greater opportunities that will give the experiences that are needed. It is important that you accept this, for you now have that ability. It is simply necessary for you to use that gift that you have so received.

JEY would at this time ask another to come and communicate with you, for you have the ability now to allow the Truth that can be given by others who come to be so entwined in your thinking daily that it is wise for you to receive information from those who can come and give you additional information. And so JEY would simply ask you to remain in your meditative state and allow another to come, with the understanding that even as JEY comes in the will of the Creator, that one too must indeed come in the will of the Creator. Be at Peace.

MAY THE SPIRIT WITHIN YOU COME FORTH NOW AND REJOICE IN THE ACCEPTANCE OF THAT WHICH HAS BEEN A LIFE UPON THE EARTH THAT HAS FULFILLED A NEED AND A PURPOSE FOR THE SPIRIT! Know that this one does rejoice with your Spirit and does rejoice with you as a physical being as well.

This one simply will come and identify to you as one who comes from the Creator and in the Will of the Creator, but one who has not been here to communicate with you in times past. Allow this one simply to talk with you. That indeed is the purpose of this one.

As you have the opportunity to serve the Creator upon the Earth, you have sought for a greater understanding of your relationship with your Creator. You have accepted the Truths that have been given to you through a channeling aspect of your existence upon the Earth. You have accepted that you too are able to receive information from your Spirit Within and also from others who come to you and help you in your daily life as Spirit. And so as this one comes to you at this time it is important for you to understand that you have now the opportunity to expand your thinking daily with the help of your Spirit. Your thinking will encompass a wider range of understanding. You will have the ability to pull to you those things that you feel are necessary for you to understand at this time in your life. You are being blessed at this time, and this one gives thanks for the opportunity to come to be a part of what you are experiencing at this time. Praise be to our Creator that you who are Spirit-in-Body have now recognized that which is the strength of Spirit, that which is the reality of you, totality of your being upon the Earth at this time, for it is important for your Spirit to be able to so energize your thinking that you will be able to go beyond that which you now know to be Truth and find for yourself from the Spirit Realm those additional Truths that can bring joy to your very being. This one would ask you to accept and to be willing to entertain those Truths that are to be given to you through Spirit, and that you be willing to share such with others who come into your presence.

Allow this one to say, too, that as you have gathered here you have been here for a purpose. Others who could not be here in your presence at this time, who are Spirit-in-Body, will indeed be able to rejoice within themselves as well as they read the information that is given to them through the printed aspect of this communication.

It is the knowledge of those of us in Spirit at this time that throughout the Earth on which you live there is much occurring at this time which is bringing much terror to many people who are undergoing not only Earth changes but those things that affect in relation to that area in which they live in the way of their daily lives. You who have in a time of much peacefulness and without much destruction in the area in which you live are to understand that there are many upon the Earth who have not had this kind of life upon the Earth. They have undergone much in the way of difficulties and hardships, and they will continue to do so. Know, too, that those who are undergoing such will have a strengthening of the Spirit Within them when they return to the Spirit Realm. It was known that they would have to undergo difficulties in this lifetime, but that through those difficulties they would be strengthened in Spirit. You need not have fear for them, for indeed they are undergoing that which is necessary. This may perhaps be a cruelty as far as your mental aspect is concerned; but you, too, have undergone much in the way of horror and terror and hardships in lives past. And so you have earned your way in this lifetime, You have come now to fulfill a purpose because you have undergone much in other lifetimes. It is important for you to accept this. Do not worry that you are having a lifetime that does provide for you shelter and food and Love, for you have come here knowing that this has been won in lifetimes past. This is not saying that you are being favored among all who are Spirit-in-Body, but simply that you have earned and have found your way, and you are now preparing for that which is to be a fulfillment of the purpose for which you came not to say that you will not have difficulties in fulfilling such. But as you are well aware, your Spirit Within now is able to guide you, and with the help of those who have come to be your Guardians of Spirit on the Earth at this time, you will be surrounded by the help and assistance that you need.

Allow this one to further say that as we who are in Spirit have been given an opportunity to communicate with you, it has brought great joy to us, because we do in fact find that there is certainly a joy in being able to help others who are Spirit-in-Body, knowing that those Spirits have in times past been in fellowship and brotherhood with those of us who are in the Spirit Realm. And so we watch after you, even as you would watch after one in your Love upon the Earth. You are in our Love. That Spirit Within you is important to each of us; and so we do surround you with our Love and even more so at this time, for you have to fulfill that for which you came to Earth. May that which is the Love of our Creator be part of your life each day, even as it is; but may you feel it at this time and may you be aware of that immense Love that can bring you the peace that you need every day of your life. And as you find others upon the Earth Plane who are in need of the acceptance of Love, simply hold them up to the Light and the Love of the Creator of All Things in order that they, too, may feel this Love and accept it.

You are blessed in that you have been here. It has been the joy of this one to come and be with you. This one asks only that you accept what you have heard; but know that your Spirit Within will enable you to do that. Go now in the Peace and the Love of the Creator of All Things. You, too, are of that Creator. Accept that. Understand the power that has been given to you with this knowledge that has been given. Do not misuse it. Simply accept it and use it for the good of others who come into your presence. Go now in Peace.

JEY returns and would ask you to know within your hearts that you have received a blessing at this time... a gift of great beauty... that which you would call a Pearl of Great Price. Accept it. Know that you have now the opportunity to fulfill to completion that which is your purpose upon the Earth. You have been given the ability to do so. Do not doubt that you are able to do so. Go now in Peace. Be in a time of Love and accepting Love, for you indeed have earned your Gift. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
