

MESSAGE FROM JEY August 26, 2001

JEY is here, and JEY is aware of the presence of those of you who are here. It is the will of the Creator at this time that those of you who are here so gathered would have the opportunity now to be in consideration of those of us who are in Spirit. We would ask you to accept that JEY does come in the will of the Creator and does come to be in your presence with much love. And so it is that as JEY welcomes you, know that there is here an opportunity for that which is to be done that will be in the will of the Creator.

At this time JEY is well aware of that which is the opportunity that each of you have had in your lifetime upon the Earth to seek after the will of the Creator for your lives. You have done so without hesitation, and you have been able to find that for which you have been seeking. JEY does indeed give thanks for that, for it has brought much joy to each of you. Also, it has brought joy to those of us who are in the Spirit Realm as we have watched your journey upon the Earth, knowing that you have now found that for which you came to Earth at this time.

Each of you have lived a life of much good for the Creator. You have been able to accomplish those things for which you have come to Earth; but know that your work upon the Earth is not finished. There is much yet for you to do. And so JEY comes at this time simply to outline that which would indeed bring a further blessing to each of your lives here upon the Earth.

As you are aware, those of us who have come to talk with you through the voice of this one have come in the will of the Creator. We have come to help you in your journey upon the Earth. We have come to help you to know Joy as you should know it upon the Earth. It has been said to you that Joy is so important in your lives. Know, too, that Love is important in your lives....and simply to know the extent of the unconditional Love of our Creator for each of you is a blessing in itself. Not many are aware that they are Loved Unconditionally as they live as Spirit-in-Body. Many live in much fear. You have now come to a time where you have overcome fear in your lives. You have accepted that you are here to learn, that you are here for a special purpose and that you are here to fulfill that purpose.

And so with that in mind, you can be sure that fear is no longer a need in your life! You need not accept fear! Know that it is with Love that the one who came to the Earth Plane and was known to you as Jesus was able to overcome in many that which was fear. And it was through Love that this was accomplished. And so as you Love and as you continue to live a life seeking for the full understanding of the unconditional Love of our Creator, you have no room in your lives for fear. And so even as you come now.... many of you who are experiencing that which is a problem with health as you live in body.... know that there is still not an opportunity here for you to be fearful. That which is your body, of course, does indeed encompass the Spirit that is Within You, and so it is important that your body be given great care; but that is not the important facet of YOU...that which is YOU. The Reality of YOU is the Spirit Within You. Your body is simply here to help the Spirit through this time upon the Earth.

And so as you understand the health in your own body, know that this can be accomplished if you seek after that which is good for the body that you now have upon the Earth Plane.

Be aware that as JEY is here in your midst and does come to talk with you at this time that there is always the opportunity for JEY to give to each of you that which would be a message. And so it is at this time that JEY comes to communicate with those of you who are here on a personal basis. Through this JEY will give you a better opportunity to know your further purpose upon the Earth. As JEY can see it from the viewpoint of the Spirit Realm, there is much occurring upon the Earth at this time that does indeed focus upon that which is the Earth Changes that you have long talked about. And so as you further see these changes taking place, you can be assured that those predictions that were given to you many years ago are now taking place. Each of you who are here have in some way begun now to accept those changes. They have been slowly coming. You are now accepting. Know there will not be a complete chaos as you may envision it. That which is the chaos is occurring upon the Earth, but it is slowly taking place. It is not that which will be an all-enveloping destructive chaos as you may have thought at one time. Indeed there are storms; indeed there are floods upon the Earth. There are now diseases that are taking the life of many upon the Earth, and there are many who are seeking after a quick end not only to their lives but to other lives. Through violence those things are occurring. And so it is that you see all around you the signs of changes that are taking place.

JEY at this time is concerned for each of you, that you may fall victim to the fear that is being generated upon the Earth by many who are ‘fear mongering’...as the term might be used with regard to that which is being forced upon you through many avenues upon the Earth. The fear of death, the fear of disfigurement, the fear of disease, the fear of all things that can bring an end to life. JEY would ask you not to fall victim to those things. Know that as you are here, you are seeking after that which is Spiritual....NOT after that which is material. And so it is if you continue to seek after those things of Spiritual Value, you will have no need to fear.

At this time JEY wishes to allow each of you simply to have an opportunity to ask a question. This is not often done by those of us who come in Spirit, but at this time JEY would ask you to simply identify self and allow your question to be heard.

Question: JEY, this is Charlotte. I find myself now in a new position and I am wondering if you can give me some advice. Am I in keeping with my highest purpose as I embark upon this new job?

Answer: JEY is aware of your question and is aware of your life upon the Earth. As you know, you have the opportunity now to affect many young lives upon the Earth. Do not hesitate to do so as you work with those who have been put in your charge. Indeed you are serving that which is a need upon the Earth. Know that those of us who are in Spirit will be in your midst and will help you as there is a need. Do not hesitate to ask for the help that you need.

Question: JEY, this is Lynda DeHart. I will be going back to Florida soon and I am just hoping that there will be more doors opened to my healing work in Florida. Do you see this as a possibility?

Answer: Your question is heard. Allow JEY to say this with regard to that to which you have dedicated your life...the healing of human bodies. Know that indeed it does take time for those of you who move to different localities to allow your energies to be used to their full extent. Do not anticipate a quick revival of the opportunities that you have known in the past, but know that they will come. Simply allow your energies to be used with one at a time. There are many on the Earth who need help...an understanding of their illness and help in overcoming their illness. If you reach out to one, then that one will indeed allow others to know of your abilities. It will be through this avenue that you will find an opportunity to help many. Do not expect that you will simply walk into a large room of people and be able to use your healing energies. Allow them to come one at a time. That is where your help is needed.

Question: JEY, this is Bonita. Could you tell me what the Father’s will is for my future...what I should be doing now? Answer: JEY hears your question and JEY does come with...if you could see upon this ‘Spirit face’... that which is a smile. It is known that you who are Bonita have been about your Father’s business upon the Earth for many years Earth time. You have not failed; you will continue. It is the thought of those of us in Spirit that as you continue to work with those who are children in your life, you will be fulfilling that which is a big need upon the Earth. But beyond that, as others can see your Light, you are drawn to them and they are drawn to you; and as you allow your Light to shine, know that others can indeed see that which is the Love of the Creator for all mankind on the Earth Plane. You are not alone in your journey. Remember that! There are those of us who are in Spirit who indeed take our charge very responsibly. Be at peace with who you are and where you are at this time.

Question: JEY, this is Bill. I want to thank you for the advice that has been given recently to me. I appreciate it and know that I have much to do; but at the same time I just ask if there is any other advice that you and others in Spirit might be able to give to me to help me to serve God and others in the best way that I can.

Answer: Your question is heard. Know that as JEY is here in your midst and can look upon your countenance, it is seen within your very being that which is a Love for others. You do not hesitate to allow your Light to be seen. As you reach out to others who are in need of help, it is through your search for Spiritual help that you have been able to achieve on this Earth Plane what you have achieved. But there is more for you to do. You may find in the days to come that there are other opportunities that are open to you that may be beyond what you foresee at this time. Do not hesitate to allow yourself to be drawn to those opportunities. As you open your own self to others who are in need of help, they will in turn find a way of helping you...if you can understand that! In other words, they will help you to find your way to other opportunities that can be put in your path. You are blessed in many ways. Do not forget that and do not allow your footsteps to falter, for indeed you are helping in those areas where you need to help. Go in Love and Be at Peace with that.

Question: JEY, this is Donna. I can't succinctly put my thinking into a few words to ask a question, but I ask help in being more truthful and realizing what my purpose is and what I am here to do. Sometimes I am really unclear about all that. A lot of times I feel like I am holding my Spirit back because of a lot of outside influences. Can you help me address that?

Answer: JEY hears not only your question but your plea for help in your question. It is known in the Spirit Realm that as you have come such a long way in your search for Spiritual Understanding and for Peace in your life, there still a longer journey for you ahead. But be aware of this...that you know that you are not traveling alone. Those of us who are in Spirit are with you and beside you and we will help you. It is known that you have suffered much hardship in your upon the Earth, much sorrow in that you have not been able to fulfill that which you see as your purpose upon the Earth. But know, too, that your purpose is being fulfilled. You have chosen upon the Earth Plane that which is a career that provides for you an opportunity to work with those who are in much need upon the Earth...those who are the young...those who need the guidance at this time upon the Earth. If you can continue in that, you will find much joy in your opportunity to serve others, and it will be through the career that you have chosen that you will find your opportunity to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth. Do not be fearful. Never give up your journey. It is so important that you be willing to allow the will of the Creator to be fulfilled in your life. Be at Peace.

If there are no other questions, JEY would come with this. Each of you who are here have indeed been blessed in that you have had the opportunity to share with others who are on a Spiritual Journey even as you are. No one has the opportunity to lead this life upon the Earth Plane without problems of different magnitudes. You are blessed if you have had few. You are blessed if you have had many, for they have only strengthened you in your resolve and your ability to move forward. Know that as you face the days to come, those of us who are in Spirit will be in your presence. We will attempt to help you in all ways possible. Know that there is an opportunity in the days to come for those of us in Spirit to help you. Be open to that help. Welcome it! We will in turn seek to help in the way that will bring that which you desire to a fulfillment if it is the will of the Creator that it be so. You must understand that we who come in Spirit come NOT to shield you from that which is a problem in your life, but we do come to help you solve the problems. And so it is that as you have the opportunity now to accept those problems and to ask for help in solving them, we will be there to help you.

Know that JEY has come with much Love. There are many who are here in Spirit in your presence. Simply envelope them in your Love and in your Heart, for they come to you with Love and they surround with that which is Love and with a feeling of Peace that only the Creator can give to you. Go now in Peace and know that it has been the joy of this one to be in your presence and to speak with you through this voice. Go now in Love. AMEN.
