

MESSAGE FROM JEY 9-23-01

JEY is here and does come now in the will of the Creator and with Love, for it is with Love that JEY has been in your midst at this time.

There is an opportunity at this time for JEY to give information which will help you to further understand those things that you have learned during this time of meeting. As you are aware, in the times past JEY has come many times to give information that would help you to more fully understand that which is your relationship with the Creator of All That Is. And so it is even now that JEY can tell you that there is much more to be learned; but while you are now in an attitude of opening your hearts and your minds to this information that JEY can give, it is with thanks that JEY has that opportunity once again to come and talk with you.

As you are aware, there has been much occur upon the Earth Plane that has brought sorrow to many. There are many who have indeed passed to Spirit very quickly and there are those who have suffered and are yet suffering as a result of that which has been the tragedy upon the Earth. But let this be known to you...that even as you are here at this time and in this place, you have not been immune to much of the suffering that mankind has known as a result of the tragedy that has occurred. Within your own hearts and minds you have now had the opportunity not only to see through technology that which has happened, but you have been able to hear much and experience much through the sensitivity that you have to others who are so injured by what has occurred. JEY would ask that you simply be in prayer for all who are involved in some way, all who have incurred some type of damage, of sorrow, as a result of what has taken place upon the Earth. You in turn will feel much relief as you simply allow your own prayers and thoughts to go out to those who are in need of prayer and help at this time.

JEY would say this to you as well. It is known that as you have had a time of going back to review and to have had a lesson on those things of great importance at this time, this indeed is a step in the direction that will help you to more fully understand your relationship to our Creator. As you are aware, once the messages have been given to you through the voice of the one who does allow herself to be used as an instrument, the words that are spoken are often fleeting. In other words, even though you hear them and see them in writing, until such time as you can sit and simply give time to understanding the messages that have been brought, you do not fully internalize the Truths that were given. And so as you go back to those times of review of the information that was given, you will find that you will be more fully aware of the impact that these messages can have on your life as Spirit-in-Body. JEY would ask you to give thought and give time to the instruction that you have received during this time of meeting, for it is through those actions that you will be able to gain more from the understandings that you already have.

It is important that you accept the fact that as you meet each time and do indeed discuss those things of Spirit that have been given to you, you have grown each time in your understanding. But know that as you practice what has been given to you, you will find that your Spirit Within is indeed able to lead you more carefully and more fully in this lifetime upon the Earth. JEY would not say that you are not to use your mental and physical aspect, for of course it is important that you do so. But JEY is saying that it is important for you at this time in this place upon the Earth that you allow your Spirit to be more in control of the decisions that you make. It is not that you are not to make decisions, but simply ask your Spirit Within to help you in the decisions that you make. This is vitally important for those of you who are OMEGA upon the Earth. You are now living in a time of change, as has been said to you in the past. Those changes will in turn affect the direction that your life takes upon the Earth. Know that this bodes well for you as you have the opportunity to allow your Spirit to guide you during the time of a radical change upon the Earth. Do not forget that you who live in this part of the Earth...which had not known tragedy that you recently experienced before this time...have been deeply affected by what has occurred. Know too that you will not be immune from further tragedy as those who seek revenge upon this country in which you live will further multiply that which they have already done. You will find that there will be other tragedies. And so keep in mind that you can change the direction that those who are the perpetrators will take in their life, by sending out your prayers that their Spirits may in turn be strengthened so that they will affect that actions that those Spirits-in-Body take. It is important that you allow this to be done daily. And as you are in a time of prayer and meditation, it is important for you to seek after a time of Peace among mankind upon the Earth. This can be achieved. Those of us who are in the Spirit Realm do look with awe at what mankind is doing not only to the Earth on which you live but to those who live upon that Earth. It is with awe that we see such hatred and such destruction that is taking place.

And so we who are in Spirit now are attempting to send forth our energy to all who live upon the Earth, that their Spirits and their actions may be at Peace. We do not ask that you physically attempt cause others to take a different direction upon the Earth, but know that your prayers do carry with them an energy that can affect mankind's actions upon the Earth. Accept this. Use this instrument which you have. Use the knowledge that you now have in order to change the direction of life upon the Earth. It can be done. And if all who are OMEGA will in turn take this action and then allow others to know that their prayers and meditation can change the direction of events upon the Earth, they will find that such can be changed. It is good that more of mankind is in a mode of prayer, for those prayers will take with them the energy of their thoughts and in turn will affect others upon the Earth as well.

You have been witness to this change in the attitude of leaders upon the Earth and in your own country, and indeed they have openly turned to prayer. They have openly turned to much that is good and powerful as they seek to lead upon this Earth now. Be at Peace with what this one can bring you at this time and know that as you are in a time of searching within your own hearts, you will find that you will then spend time in meditation and in prayer in the days to come and you will fully know peace and fully understand your close relationship to the Creator and those of us who are in Spirit. We come to you at this time with much Love and understanding that, yes, you are living during a time of great chaos; but you are prepared for that chaos. You came here to live during this time, and part of that living and being during this time is that you will indeed send forth your energy to others through your meditation and your prayers. This is important. As it has been told to you, you will see much in the way of chaos throughout the Earth, but you in your own area may not have that to deal with; but you must indeed meet the challenge that is before you and that is to send forth your energy and your prayers for that will indeed have an effect on all who are upon the Earth. Be at Peace with this. Know that JEY has come to you and has been with you with Love. Know that JEY will remain with you as there is a need. Go now in Peace....and JEY would emphasize PEACE....and in Love....and JEY would emphasize LOVE. Know that you remain in the unconditional Love of the one who is your Creator. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
