

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 1-26-2003

JEY is here and is aware of the need for JEY to be here at this time. There is an opportunity in this time of meeting for JEY to discuss other topics that would relate to that which has just been read during this time together. Allow JEY to say this. When you have an opportunity to meet and to discuss those things of Truth which have been given to you, know that this is counted as a blessing for you during this lifetime upon the Earth. There are many who are Spirit-in-Body who do not have the privilege of discussing things of Truth with others of like mind. You are blessed beyond all your imagination as you are gathered here and can indeed talk freely about those things which you believe and those things which are of Spirit.

As you are aware, throughout this which is the Earth there are many of those things which you call 'religions' which forbid an open thinking. In other words, that which is simply given to them as acceptable is what they must believe and what they must follow. Each of you have allowed your Spirit to lead you through what your Spirit has needed to do. In other words, you have sought after Truth, you have opened your heart and your mind to Truth, and you have allowed your Spirit to lead you. For this, those of us in the Spirit Realm do indeed give thanks and praise to our Creator that you have been able to find your way.

Many upon the Earth are indeed searching; many are indeed simply 'stuck' in that which has been provided for them to believe outside the realm of Spirit. You have at this time an opportunity often to share what is known to you as Truth in a way that others will accept what you are offering for them.

Be not over zealous in sharing that which you know, but rather simply be there when there is a need to express that which is a belief which you know to be Truth that will help another when they are in a time of difficulty. You will find that this will bear fruit as you are seeking to allow others to know a life of Peace by simply following after the guidance of their Spirit.

Those who are in a time of searching for Truth will be open to your communicating with them about the Spirit Within. This is easily understood by all who have a belief in the Eternal. But you must know that you do not have the privilege of forcing what you believe upon others. You simply can plant a seed and allow that seed to be nurtured and to take root and grow in the physical mind of others who have been in your presence. It is through this means that you have come to be where you are at this time. It was not that you were ever forced to accept that which is known to us in the Spirit Realm as Truth. We simply were able to bring information to you that would help you in your search, that would help you in your belief. As was said to you many times before, there is not a necessity for your being forced to believe anything. Your Spirit will lead you. Your Spirit will guide you in your search and in your acceptance.

So with that said, JEY would come now to relate to you that which is known to have been a concern on your part during this time of meeting.

You have discussed much with regard to that which has been occurring upon the Earth. You have discussed the possibility of many occurrences upon the Earth which would be devastating to mankind. What JEY is most concerned about at this time, however, is that which is a war against others who are mankind upon the Earth. If you are able to allow your thoughts to be sent to those who are in control of the nations upon the Earth, know that those thoughts can be picked up by others to whom you are sending your thoughts. You need to remind self again that thoughts indeed are powerful in your life on Earth; and as you allow your Spirit then to join with your thoughts in going to those who are in need of guidance upon the Earth, you will continue to find that there will be much occur that will indicate that those leaders upon the Earth are receiving your thoughts. They are receiving the help of your Spirit. This must be directed to those who are in need of such. Even now it is not too late for that to occur.

JEY is aware of your prayers. JEY is aware of your desires that all who are involved in this which may be a conflict upon the Earth do indeed have now a lessening of desire for war. You must understand that this has come upon that which is a brink of destruction upon the Earth. And once a war has begun, as JEY and others who are in Spirit can see, there is no end to the violence upon the Earth. There are those who are now in conflict because of religious beliefs, and this will intensify if there is war. There are those who are in conflict because of geographical regions that will intensify. There are those who are in conflict because they simply do not know how to behave otherwise. They do not know how to carry peace in their own lives, and they simply want to wreak havoc and injustice upon all upon the Earth.

We who are in Spirit look with much pain in our own being at what is occurring upon the Earth, knowing full well that each one who is Spirit-in-Body could be living in peace, could know joy, could have a time of plenty as far as food and nourishment is concerned. But mankind has gone beyond this understanding and simply used the Earth to satisfy his own whims with regard to what he wants upon the Earth. Be at Peace with that, but know that you CAN change the thoughts of mankind! You CAN change what is occurring upon the Earth. You can even change what is occurring within the Earth. You have much now to do by sending forth your love and thoughts not only to mankind, but also to the Earth. Allow your thoughts and energy of your thoughts to be directed toward the Earth in order that it may as well be changed.

There is at this time an opportunity as well for those of us in Spirit to work with all of mankind upon the Earth. As you well know, we are not allowed to force our selves, our Spirits, in the thinking of the Spirits of mankind upon Earth. We simply will send out a positive energy to the Earth at this time, a positive energy to the leaders of all the Earth nations, and seek to allow that positive energy to interact with the negative energy being held in the minds of so many upon the Earth. You, too, can send forth your energy as you send forth your thoughts and as you allow your Spirit to go forth. Know that you have so much Spiritual energy which can emanate from your own body and can be sent to those leaders on Earth who are in need at this time.

JEY would not ask that you simply spend every minute of every day of your life in doing this. BUT KNOW THIS! At every instant when you have a thought, your Spirit can go to help another one who is in need upon the Earth. Let your thought take wing! Let it go! Let be sent where you feel there is a need for it to go. These things come about very quickly. It is not a time when you sit in long hours of meditation to allow it to take place. If your Spirit is given the freedom as you sleep, as it is given the freedom to travel at other times in your waking hours, know that you only have to THINK IT. IT CAN BE! And so we who are in the Spirit Realm can tell you that your physical self will be protected during those times. You need have no fear of that. Simply know that we who are in the Spirit Realm come to grant you our presence, to grant you our love, to share with you our energy, and to share with you our knowledge as we know it to be. And know that we who are in Spirit must obey the will of the Creator of All That Is. We must! And JEY would emphasize the word MUST! We must bring only Truth. We must bring a suggestion for action that would be in keeping for that which is Spirit.

And so JEY at this time, mindful of your needs and the needs of many others who have been named during this time of meeting, would come now to ask that you know that you have been here for a purpose, that your Spirit has been strengthened, that your own mental self has been strengthened. And know that, as said before, JEY as Gatekeeper for OMEGA will come to each of you as you have a need. Rely on the Spirit Within you to grant you the guidance that you need. If there is a need to call upon JEY for help, simply ask that your Spirit would guide you and ask for that help.

Be at Peace now. Know that we who are in the Spirit Realm do indeed look upon the Earth with much Love, look at all that inhabit it with much Love. Know that ALL are creations of the one Creator of All Things. And we indeed do share that which is a strong belief that mankind is able to open hearts and minds if they only allow their Spirit to do so. Be at Peace now and know that JEY will indeed come to you if there is a need. Go now in Love. AMEN.
