

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 5-6-2003

JEY is here and does indeed come here at this time, in the will of the Creator. Let it be known to each of you who are here that as JEY is in your midst, JEY is well aware of the concerns of each of you and does give thanks that you have the opportunity to voice your concerns and to hear of those things that will help each of you understand the Spiritual aspect of your life upon the Earth. JEY would not ask you to always acquiesce to simply that which is the opinion of one or the other, or indeed that which has been brought to you through the one who comes as JEY. But JEY would ask you to concern yourself with seeking after that which is Truth in order that you may know within your very being that which is the Truth that is necessary for YOU to understand.

JEY does not force you to accept information; but allow JEY to say this....that indeed JEY does come in the will of the Creator and does come to bring you only that which is Truth. And so JEY will, at this time, attempt to intercept those thoughts which you have expressed and will attempt to give information that will be helpful to you.

As you are aware, there is now a time upon the Earth where much of the conflict that has been taking place has ceased; but still within many areas there is a time of unrest among mankind, and there is time for opportunity for misdeeds among mankind. In other words, there is such an effort throughout the Earth at this time to simply force mankind to believe all that is given to them as Truth, whether it be from a Spiritual aspect or from that which is the mind of mankind. JEY would ask you to consider that you spend time in meditation and in seeking through prayer for those things that will be useful to you in this lifetime that will come to you through thought from those of us in the Spirit Realm, and through prayer and through meditation. It is important that you surround yourself with an understanding of the Spiritual aspect of your life upon the Earth. Know that indeed you are here, your Spirit is here, the Reality of you is here in body in order for you to experience those things that will be beneficial to you as Spirit in the Spirit Realm when it is time for you to return to the Spirit Realm.

We who are now in the Spirit Realm have indeed accepted those things that we learned as we lived as Spirit-in-Body; and yet we know that many of the things that were taught to us during that time in body were not the important aspects which we had sought for upon the Earth. And so we have returned as Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth many, many times; and yet we have gained from each of those lives which we have lived. JEY would ask you simply to be content with your choice as a Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth at this time, for indeed as it has been said to you, you did choose to be here at this time upon the Earth. You who were known as a Seeker of Truth and given the name OMEGA at a time within the Spirit Realm have come to Earth for a purpose to fulfill, not only for the Spirit Within you but indeed to help others who come into your presence upon the Earth! You are a Bringer of Light; you are a Bringer of Truth to many; and your hearts and your minds are open to those things that will help others see that Light within you as you approach them daily in your time of work.

It is important for each of you to understand more fully, too, that all that you experience in this life upon the Earth is not of a positive nature. Indeed, there are many negative things that have occurred during lifetimes upon the Earth, and they will continue to occur; but you must accept that those negative things bring to you an understanding that will more fully enable you to move forward and to seek after those things of a positive nature that will influence your life and the lives of others. You are not here to suffer through this which is a lifetime of much indignities, much unrest, and much in the way of cruelty. You are here to experience the joy of life upon the Earth. And so as you seek for the will of the Creator in your life, you are seeking to more fully understand and to accept the joys that can be brought to you. You each have an opportunity in this lifetime as Spirit-in-Body to seek after those things that bring you Joy, that bring you Love, that bring Light into your life. And so JEY would encourage each of you to seek after those things.

At this time allow JEY to say this to you, too....that each of you, as you have journeyed upon this Earth as Spirit-in-Body, have encountered within your Spiritual searches those organizations known to you upon the Earth as churches that have influenced your thinking. It is important that you open your heart and your mind daily to try to understand the Truths of those things that have been taught to you and discard those things which do not bear Truth for you. You have an opportunity to choose upon the Earth those things which influence your life.

Seek only for those things that have a positive influence upon your thinking, upon your life; and then share those things of a positive thinking with others who come into your life. You are not here to simply go through this life alone. Look around you at those who have influenced your life, and then look at those lives that you are influencing at the present time. You have an opportunity and a responsibility to be a positive influence upon the lives of all others who come into your presence. And so as you can share those thoughts that have a positive aspect, to all who come into your life, know that you are doing those things which are necessary for you to do. It is important for each one who is Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth to simply be able to show love for others, to show joy to others, and to exhibit that which is simply a life that is filled with the enjoyment of living upon the Earth as Spirit-in-Body at this time.

As you are aware, there are many upon the Earth who feel that their beliefs in eternity simply require them not to show joy. They must not show any aspect of that which is an enjoyment of life because they have the belief that all of life can be evil, and therefore they must not show an enjoyment for a love of life as it is. And so they wander through a lifetime upon the Earth not knowing joy, not fully realizing the importance of love in their life; and so it is those that you see that you can share the joy and the love and the light of life as it is to be lived upon the Earth. You do not have to be simply one who share all of your beliefs upon the Earth; but you can share Love, you can share Joy, and you can let the Light of the Creator within you to shine forth to others.

As you are aware, there is a statement upon the Earth that indeed those things that you allow to come through you, the atmosphere that surrounds you, can say more to others about you than what you believe in the words that you speak to others. And so it is that JEY would ask you to simply let your light shine to others; let your joy be given to others; and let your love surround all others who come into your presence. This is important!

And now JEY would like to address one other thing; and that is this. As you have talked about beliefs of various peoples upon the Earth, know that they are indeed experiencing what they need to experience upon the Earth at this time. You are not all following after the same path upon the Earth. You are here for special purposes. And so it is not your judgment to decide whether all others upon the Earth need to make a change in the paths that they are following! It is known, of course, that there are those that are following after their own desires to the extent that they are perpetrating those things of an evil intent. That is not as the Creator of All That Is would have it to be. But you can indeed keep them in your thoughts and in your prayers, and ask that they would ask the Spirit Within them to control their actions upon the Earth.

Since the Spirit of everyone who lives in body is OF THE CREATOR, that Spirit can guide everyone toward a path that will enable them to be a being of light and love. But if they are unaware of that Spirit Within them which is of the Creator, they have no way of knowing that the Spirit can guide them into a life of joy and love. And so within your prayers allow it to be that you would be able to open your heart and your mind to pray for everyone, that they may be able to allow the God Spirit within them to lead them in this life upon the Earth.

And so with that said, JEY would simply ask you to accept that indeed you are of the Creator, that you have within you a Spirit that is a Powerful Spirit, and that which is your Spirit not only can lead you in this lifetime but can go to others and help them to understand the importance of the Spirit Within them.

JEY does not come here to simply provide for you a sermon, as JEY has said before, but JEY comes to share with you the Love and the Joy that JEY holds at this time because you are here and because others who are OMEGA upon the Earth are seeking after the will of the Creator for their lives. And as each one touches upon the life of another, they can indeed help that one who is touched to open heart and mind to receive the love of the Creator and therefore change their direction upon the Earth as well. Each one of you who are here will touch other lives in the days to come. Let that touch be that which is an awakening for another who is upon the Earth. You have been able to have your thoughts directed toward a love and a joy and a peace that can be found in this life upon the Earth. May it continue to be so.

And JEY would simply say to you, if there is a need for JEY to come to be with you at any time to help you through a problem area in your life, simply ask that JEY would come to you and help you as Gatekeeper for OMEGA. And now may you know only that which is the Love of the Creator in your life each day in the weeks that are ahead for you. Go now in Love and be at Peace. AMEN.
