

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 9-07-2003

JEY is here and does now come again in the will of the Creator, and does come with much love for those of you who are here. It is the joy of JEY at this time to welcome one other to this which is OMEGA, for indeed that one is a Spirit of much joy, much peace upon the Earth; JEY is well aware of her connection to this which is a Spiritual search that has been in her life. JEY now says to those of you who are here, "Do not seek after that which is only for the moment, but seek after that which is for the Spirit, for indeed that is what is important for your life upon the Earth at this time."

JEY does come now to simply give information. JEY is aware of that which you have taken time to read and to study (JEY message 8-24-2003), and JEY is aware of the important of these messages to those of you who are here and those who do receive the messages through that which is the written word. JEY would ask each of you to be willing to share the information that you receive, for indeed there are many who are "Seekers of Truth" at this time, and it is important because of all that is occurring upon the Earth. It is important for those who are Seekers to be able to find that which is Truth. They will know Truth when they hear Truth, for indeed the information which comes from those of us who are in Spirit is indeed Truth.

JEY will share this information with you at this time. You who are here, and those who will read this message, have at this time an understanding of that which is the Spirit, and the relationship of the Spirit to the Creator of All That Is. But there are many who are living as Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth who do not have this understanding. They do not understand that which is the consequence of the actions of the body upon the Earth with regard to Spirit. When the body and the mind are not well aware of that which is the connection with the Spirit within the body, know that many things are occurring due to the actions of the body that will have a negative effect upon the Spirit. But know that the Spirit is strong and the Spirit can overcome these actions; but there are many who are living as Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth who will never know, in this lifetime, the relationship of the Spirit Within them to the Creator of All Things....the Creator of All That Is! And so it is important that you who are Seekers of Truth and are well aware of that relationship to attempt to share the knowledge that you have in connection with the relationship of Spirit to Body, and that you begin to share your understanding with others who may not be so well aware.

JEY is well aware, too, that each of you who are here have within your life in this lifetime a career that does touch upon the lives of many others; and so you have a daily opportunity to share Truth with others who come into your life. Know that you simply be at prayer, however, with regard to whether or not it is now time to share Truth with another person who comes into your life. Many are seeking. Many are not seekers and are not absolutely in great concern about whether they have Truth or not! And so it is important that you seek after the Will of the Creator with regard to those with whom you would like to share information at this time.

Beyond this, JEY has another concern that needs to be given attention at this time. You who are Spirit-in-Body have within your lifetime the knowledge of many things that have occurred upon the Earth. Some of you who have lived many years upon the Earth have great memories of times past; and those of you who have not lived so many years upon the Earth still have memories of times past. And you who are newer in this body upon the Earth have indeed learned from others who are parents or family members or older friends about many things that have occurred in times past. And so you are all aware of the many times upon the Earth in your life time...and prior to your life time....of that which has been a time of war upon the Earth. And those wars throughout the ages have affected many lives upon the Earth. Many lives were taken at a young time. Many lives were touched by the war in which that life had lived. But know that those wars have not ceased the violence upon the Earth! One war has caused another....and on down and down until this present time upon the Earth.

Wars are simply acts of violence against other mankind upon the Earth, against other thinking upon the Earth, against aggressiveness upon the Earth, against the seeking of power upon the Earth.....seeking to control others who live as Spirit-in-Body. And so you have seen much which has occurred in that way.

And so even before your lifetime, the history of your Earth is one of war. And so as we who are now in the Spirit Realm can see not only this lifetime which you are living upon the Earth, we can see beyond prior lifetimes where we were all part of that which is the Creator of All That Is. We have this knowledge....we can see back to that time, we can see forward to what is to be. But we cannot tell you how to behave in this lifetime in order to assure that you will conquer everything that needs to be conquered.

We can give you advice, we can encourage you; but we cannot tell any one of you that ' you must not do this or you must not do that!' We have encouraged you to simply allow your Spirit to go out to work with others as you sleep; but we cannot order you to do that! We who are in Spirit can be your Guardian of Spirit, but we cannot order you to allow your Spirit to do anything which you as a mental being would not allow your Spirit to do. We can encourage you to allow the Spirit Within you to help you to lead your own life, but we cannot force you to do that!

And so it is that you cannot force another who is on the Earth to do anything beyond their choosing. You have the opportunity to encourage, but you cannot force!

Each Spirit comes here for learning, lives within a body for learning. And so it is as they go about learning, the mental self is making decisions about the actions which the body will take upon the Earth. You can see how difficult this often is! Think about your own life as a Spirit-in-Body, where your footsteps have led you, and how the actions of your body and vice-versa have affected your mental self! You have made choices; your body has followed after those choices, and in turn that which is your Spirit has learned something from those choices that have been made. And so this is not an easy life that you live as Spirit-in-Body. You are dealing with a physical self, a mental self and a Spiritual self. And so you have three different aspects of life, each wanting to go its own way! But know since the Spirit Within you is your Spiritual self, it is following after only that which is the Will of the Creator. Still, your physical actions and mental decisions are going to affect what that Spirit can do. And so as you look at your life in this respect, you know that it has not been an easy life.

And so we who are in the Spirit Realm rejoice when one who is Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth has made that leap forward and allowed the Spirit to be a greater aspect of life. Each of you who are here have sought beyond that which you knew as a physical-mental being. You are now aware of your Spirit. You are aware of the needs of the Spirit. And the Spirit now is able to help you in all ways that you will allow it to help. That is a joy and a gift, because when you come to realize the strength, the power, and the source of your Spirit, you have been given a great gift. And so JEY would urge you to cherish that gift which you have. You now understand the Spirit, the power of the Spirit, and certainly the source of the Spirit, because it IS OF the Creator and does indeed have great ability because of that. Until you have come to realize this, your Spirit has not always been able to help you in making the decisions that you now can make.

And so JEY would encourage you to call upon the Spirit Within you to help you when you have decisions to make that will affect the well being of your physical and mental self. Ask your Spirit to help. And if you find it difficult at times to understand the urging of Spirit, ask your Guardian of Spirit to come and help you make your decisions. Indeed your Spirit can receive assistance from your Guardian of Spirit. Can you now see why you are totally blessed because of your wanting to seek for Truth upon the Earth? You now have those opportunities and those abilities that will help you in this lifetime upon the Earth that not everyone is blessed with. You now are able to ascertain the Truth in those things that you hear, those things that you read. And that is a blessing. Ask your Spirit to help you in ascertaining those Truths. It is Truth that your Spirit wants you to know! It is Truth that those of us who are in the Spirit Realm want you to receive! We want you to be careful about what you would allow your mental self to accept as Truth. We ask you not to accept everything. Even as JEY comes and give you information....and JEY must indeed give you Truth....if there are those things that are given which you feel you cannot readily accept, then put those things aside until such time as you feel "Yes, I know now those things as Truth; I can accept it as Truth." JEY does not come to force. Neither does your Guardian of Spirit come to force you to accept anything that is given to you! But we do ask you to be prayerful, to seek after Truth, to open your heart to the urgings of your Spirit in order that your Spirit may help you to understand and to accept Truth."

And for those of you who have a need at this time, those of you who have an absence of health in your body, allow JEY to say this. JEY would once again ask that which is the Healing Spirit to come and be in your midst. JEY is aware that this occurred in the time past, but JEY is also aware that there is an additional need here. And so JEY would ask you to remain in meditation, to allow your Spirit to be open to receive this help; but above all to be mentally prepared for your body to receive the help that it can receive during this time. And so now as you are in a time of meditation and quiet, JEY would once again ask that you would allow the Healing Spirit to come and be in your midst. May it be so. May that which is Truth be open to you and may that which is Healing Energy from the Healing Spirit be open to you, to be receptive to that which can be given to you.

(A short time of meditative quietness followed)

ONCE AGAIN THIS ONE COMES TO BE IN YOUR MIDST, THIS ONE KNOWN TO YOU AS THE HEALING SPIRIT AT THIS TIME. Be at Peace! This one has come again to help those who are in need in this meeting. And this one who comes as a Healing Spirit will ask all those who are recipients of this which would be a copy of the message to be open.... if they are in need of healing.... to be open to the healing that can be given to them by simply calling up the presence of that which comes as a Healing Spirit. It can be done. And so at this time, this one who comes in the Will of the Creator will indeed come again to bring the healing energy to this which is the gathering of those who are OMEGA. Be receptive to this. Allow that energy to flow through your physical bodies. And whether it be physical healing or mental healing, may it be that you will be able to receive this healing. Be at peace while this one who comes in the will of the Creator does indeed share this energy with you.

(Silence followed)

This one who is the Healing Spirit will remain in your midst and will attempt to allow the healing energy to continue to be with you. The Healing Spirit would ask that you accept what you are now receiving, and know that it will continue to go with you. Be at Peace.

JEY returns and does indeed give thanks that those of you who are here have been able to receive that which is a healing energy. Be at Peace. Accept what has been the Will of God for you to receive. And know that as you go forth in the days to come, you simply need to recall the energy which you have received and it shall be once again given to you. Be now at Peace and know that we who are in the Spirit Realm continue to give you our assistance daily as you have a need for it. Go now in Love, and know that we who are with you at this time do surround you with Love, and we do assure you that we have been in your midst because it is the will of the Creator that we be here. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
