

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 2-27-2005

...(for some reason the first part of the transcript did not take on the tape...and so we pick it up at this point)..... in order for them to overcome some situation in their life that they have to deal with in regard to health or where they may be at this or any given time. Know that those of us who are in the Spirit Realm can look upon each one who is known as a member of OMEGA and can indeed know of their needs. And so at this time we would ask that each one within this group would accept the fact that we do indeed bless them and care for them, and do indeed want to see them meet the needs that they have at this time. We do not always have the opportunity to help everyone upon the Earth, but we who come as your Guardians of Spirit do have the opportunity to know that we can indeed call upon the Creator of Us All to simply bless each one who is known as OMEGA and asks that the blessing of the Creator will be with you.

At this time, those of us who are in the Spirit Realm do have the opportunity to know that those of you who are here at this time have been insistent upon meeting together today; and so we would ask that the blessings of the Creator would be with the one who has provided a place for you to meet and would be with this one who serves as an instrument. We would ask you to recognize that each of these people have provided what is necessary for us at this time in order for this to be a meeting. And so we do give thanks for that.

Because we are in Spirit, we often overlook the fact that we need to thank you for coming to be together; and we need to thank you for this place of meeting. We need to thank you for any service that you do for this group known as OMEGA. And so we are indeed thankful for each of you. Please accept our thanksgiving.

And so at this time JEY would talk about another topic. As you know, in the time past JEY did indeed dwell upon that which was perception, and that mankind does, more often than not, base his actions upon perception rather than upon knowledge and Truth. As you are aware, JEY did talk about Truth and knowledge and perception and attitude; and so it is that today there is another factor that JEY wishes to speak about that will have impact upon those who are in need of knowing the Truth that can be brought to you.

And that is the giver of Truth. As you are aware, mankind on Earth today does rely more fully upon that which is perception, which may or may not speak a Truth when it is given. So what you are to hear today has to do with the person who gives that which is Truth or that which is perception.

Either way it must be known to mankind today. And so as you look at the giver of that which is the perception, you wonder if that person does have the entire knowledge that would provide Truth when they are giving what they see to be truth; but rather it is perception they are seeing within their own hearts and minds. Perhaps that person that is giving the perception may have an opportunity here to give what he or she would think of as perception rather than what he or she would think of as knowledge and Truth. And so you must be aware of those individuals who bring to you information, whether it be with regard to perception, or in regard to knowledge. It is not always truthful, as you know at this time.

And so as mankind comes to you with that which is information, know that you should be aware of the fact that he is basing this information on perception, or on knowledge. There is indeed a difference in what you receive or what will be known to you. Perception, as one sees things, is simply based upon what mankind may see in another. And so the person who comes to you may be basing what he would share with you as that which he sees at this time, or perceives at this time, rather than what is truth. The person who comes to you with truth and shares truth with you will indeed be one who does share the knowledge that he has and share the truth that he has.

You must be at peace with the information that you receive in order you know that it comes to you as truth and as good. As you are aware, upon this Earth at this time there are those who would acknowledge truth and would give truth. Those of you who are known as OMEGA must be fully in this avenue of giving truth. If you do not know that the information that you are given is truth, you must search for the truthfulness of the information before you pass it along to others. If you pass on perception to others, you will find that you are not always speaking the truth of an event that may have been given to you. And so we ask you now to receive the person who gives information to you, but acknowledge that you are receiving either truth or perception.

So it is with mankind that they are bent to lean one way or the other to always look for truth and to always speak truth and knowledge, or to look for perception. Be sure, as an OMEGAN, that you are looking at that which is a truthful report, regardless of what you receive. Those of us who come to you in Spirit are well aware that we work with each of you fully, because there are many as you well know who are far flung throughout the Universe. As these messages go forth in your form of sending them, they are greeted by many people all over the Earth as a result of having received information from the Spirit Realm.

We would ask you at this time to be well aware of your actions with regard to information that is sent forth. May it be that you would be able to reach with these reports that we bring to you as Truth in order that the people may not be misled who are receiving them. We would give you Truth. It is our duty to do so; and as we come from the Spirit Realm and do come to you in the will of the Creator, we must share Truth with you.

It is an opportunity at this time for each of us to be here with you to bring one more truth to you at this moment. And that is, the truth of whether or not you are giving ample time and attention to that which is your responsibility upon the Earth. Each of you who are known as OMEGA have differing responsibilities upon the Earth, whether it be teaching or writing or whatever you may be doing. You do have responsibility, always, to give truth. You cannot give a half truth or no truth at all; but you must simply share truth wherever you are working or in whatever you may be doing. And so at this time we would ask you to be in a time of sharing the Truth that you know with regard to what you are doing upon the Earth at this time. It is indeed a time where those who are OMEGA need to lead the way in this. It is not always that people throughout the Earth are speaking Truth or sharing Truth. But you who are OMEGA may lead the way in sharing the Truth that you know in regard to what you are doing upon the Earth. You have an opportunity to simply share with those with whom you work and share the Truth that you know in order to bring about the opportunity for those people with whom you are sharing to accept Truth and to know Truth. There are many things with regard to the work that you are doing to share the Truth that you know; and so it is your opportunity and your responsibility to share the Truth that comes to you and that you pass on to others. Let self be aware of this.

Also, JEY is well aware of the opportunity that you to share friendship with another who lives upon the Earth. You must take advantage of simply knowing full well that the friendship that you have with another person is a treasure that you have, for you indeed have one who will listen to you, you have one to whom you will listen, and you have a time in your life where you are able to share with that friend many things which you would share with no one else. Be at peace with that. Know that you will be able to share the truth of all things with a friend who is very close to you. You will find in the few days ahead that many friends will be placed in your way with which you can share truth; and so you will take this admonition to heart...that you will indeed be a friend to that friend in order that one may know and share, at a right time when you have the opportunity to share with that friend.

At this time, JEY wishes to say this to you as well. Upon the Earth at this time there are those who are in need of a friend, whether you are known to them or unknown to them. There are many children who are in need of a friend, who are in need of not only a friendly face but one who can help them in many ways. Spend your time helping another upon the Earth at this time. Any free time that you have to help another will be treasured by the person that you help. There are many upon the Earth who are in need of so much at this time; and whether you be rich or poor, you have the opportunity to help that person who lives upon the Earth. Give freely of those things which you have the opportunity to give, whether it simply be money or help of that from the energy that you have. Give freely what you have. You will be blessed many times over by this.

And JEY would ask that you take these things to heart that JEY has shared with you and know that in the days to come there will be those placed in your life that will require your help if you will be willing to help. Share the Truths that you have. Go in peace, and may you know that those of us in the Spirit Realm do come to help you, do come to give Truth, do come to share knowledge. This will always be the case as this one who is JEY has the opportunity to be with you. Go now in love and be at Peace. As we know within the Spirit Realm, peace does come to those who love. Give of your love to others. They will return it. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
