

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 10-23-05

JEY is here and is well aware of the conversation which those of you who are here in this group have had this day. Know indeed as you have sought to explain those things which you have had to understand, we who are in the Spirit are indeed interested in those of you who are here for more than one reason. We intend, of course, to try to help you to meet your goal in your spiritual growth; but we who are Spirit are very interested in what you have to express at this time upon the Earth. We know that you are very sincere in your beliefs and your attention to the subject of spiritual growth, but we do have that which the human being has, too, and that is a sense of curiosity in knowing those of you and the thoughts of those of you who are here in the group at this time.

May each of you find your way upon this Earth. Know that each of you have the same goal, and yet a different goal from that which the other has, and we would assure you that we who are in Spirit would attempt to help you achieve your goal upon the Earth. Let JEY now touch upon a topic that would be of interest to you at this time.

You have at this time before you that which is a journey that many of you have been in completion of; yet, you have a journey that is ahead of you. JEY would ask that you approach this journey in prayer, for what does lie ahead of you is necessary for you to know, to continue on your journey on this Earth. In fact, it is part of your journey. And so JEY would ask you to be in prayer daily, to give thought to that which is your spirit daily in order that your Guardian may come to help you, and to know that you are indeed one who is seeking for the will of the Creator while on the Earth. We who are in the Spirit Realm do not come to force but to encourage you and help you in all that you seek to do upon the Earth. And so it is at this time that JEY seeks to find a way for you to move forward in your search that would work in attaining that search. You have each a good mental self that does allow you to search for, to read, to understand and to know those things that are of a value to you in your search for the Spiritual journey.

Each of you has a personal journey to do as well. Know that you each have a differing emphasis on the type of life that you want to live on the Earth, and so JEY would not come to discourage you in that but to encourage you in your spiritual growth and to know that which you would call 'a living' upon the Earth does differ, one from another upon the entire Earth. But you in this group have that which is a similar journey at this time simply to find your way along the spiritual path.

JEY can tell you this, that your own spiritual journey does concur with that which is the will of the Creator for your life, and as you have the opportunity now, that which is the work of your life has indeed met that which is your purpose upon the Earth. This should be encouraging to each of you; and so JEY would come at this time to ask you to continue with all of your energy in the direction in which you are going because this will lead you to the fulfillment of your desire upon this Earth.

Know that each of you have a concern for others in your life, as well, and JEY would simply ask you to continue in prayer for those who are in need at this time. Know that many upon the Earth are in need of help from the spiritual aspect and from the Spirit Realm. We would attempt to help those whom you have named as well as those of you who are here. You often times do not consider your own needs in a time such as this, as JEY has said in the past. You have thought of others who needed help, you have named others who need help, and who need the help of those in the Spirit world. So we will at this time assure you that we will attempt to help those who are in need of help at this time.

Let it be known to each of you that you do not have the opportunity to judge another upon the Earth at any time. So, at this time where you are gathered together, there will be many from outside this meeting who will be reading this which is the material that JEY has given to you; and so each one who has come as OMEGA, you who have come in the group, those of you outside the group, do indeed have the necessity of realizing that you have no right to judge another upon the Earth. There are others who are making mistakes, but that is part of their learning process upon the Earth. You do not need to judge another because you as an individual have done those things that are not in the sight of the Creator. And so we would ask you to be charitable in the thoughts of others and the idea that they may be doing wrong in the sight of the Creator. You must remember that as you live upon the Earth, you are in a process of growing Spiritually, of growing physically, of meeting the needs of your body, and know that others are doing the same. Even as you may make a mistake upon the Earth and have to release the idea that it is necessary for you, just know that there are those who are Spirit-in-Body who are here to learn, just as you do, and yet are not able to find the Spiritual Growth that you have found.

JEY would ask that you remember all others in your prayers, and know that each one has come here for a purpose, and are here to meet that purpose.

JEY is well aware that many are not aware of their journey here to fulfill a purpose and are simply blindly going forth, not trying to fulfill that which is necessary. JEY would ask you to remember them in your prayers. As you face yet another time of suffering upon the Earth of those in another area of your country, know that many will suffer from this which is headed toward their home. You must remember that those who are injured, those who will die are many upon the Earth caused by the calamities of the Earth. You must give thought to them in your daily prayer as well.

As JEY is here at this time, JEY wishes to thank those of you who have remained true to the one who is coming as our Creator, and know that what you now are sharing with others throughout the Earth will be bearing fruit. There is an opportunity for each of you to help another, to reach out to another, to share with another. Know that as you do so you will be sharing Truth and Love, and there are those who will accept the Truth and Love that you share. Be not hasty to bring judgment on another. Be in a time of prayer for all others, and know that you will have met many of the requirements of being a spiritual individual upon the Earth.

At this time there is an opportunity for JEY simply to bring a blessing to each of you. So at this time JEY would ask you to remain in meditation as JEY brings this blessing for you. Almighty God will you at this time look upon those who are OMEGA upon the Earth and bring to them that which is necessary for their lives. Know that each one who is here, each one who is outside this group and is living as OMEGA does have a special need to be met. We would ask that the Spirit of our Creator be upon them, be with them and go with them throughout their daily lives. We ask that you bless them and keep them safe at this time upon the Earth. We ask this in the name of Christ. AMEN
