JEY is here and does come to your midst with much Love for each of you. It has been a time since JEY has come to communicate with those of you who are here. At this time allow JEY to say this. As you have gathered here the warmth of your Love has been made known to those of us in the Spirit Realm, and we rejoice in that for it is in your gatherings that you share the Joy and Love with each other. And as you take the time out of your daily lives to gather and to share those activities of your lives the.. the events of your lives.. know that those of us who are in Spirit and who watch over you do indeed rejoice in the opportunity to do so.

It is now that JEY simply comes as one who is Gatekeeper for OMEGA and does give thanks for that responsibility during this time in the Spirit Realm.. and does give thanks that this one has the opportunity to use the voice of the one who is sharing upon the Earth Plane at this time. May it be always that you will be able to open your hearts and minds and to seek for Truth.. and then to accept the Truth that you find. It is in so doing that your lives are made full and you are blessed beyond all that you could imagine in this lifetime.

It is the joy of those of us who serve as Guardians of Spirit to be able to be in your midst when you gather and to share in the Joy that you experience.. for we too gain from which is Joyful for you.

At this time JEY would ask that you simply allow this one to communicate to you something that may be of importance to you in the days to come.

As you have the opportunity to share with one another during this lifetime, know that it is a time where you are growing in Spirit when you are able to share your Joys and Spiritual Experiences. Your Spirit Within you does have an opportunity to know with you the worth of such Joy. It is important that you as a physical being be aware that all that you do does in some way affect your Spirit. And so as you look for those things of worth upon the Earth to experience, know that this does help your Spirit to become stronger and more aware of that which is being created upon the Earth which will serve as a lesson upon the Earth Plane for the Spirit Within you.

It is with much Love that JEY has had the opportunity to come and share with you those bits of Spiritual Truth which have been shared. And know that although JEY has for these many months and years been able to share through this one who allows voice to be used, this is only a small part of the Spiritual understanding that you can look forward to.

Even as those who have served upon the Earth as OMEGA and have now returned to the Spirit Realm have experienced the exhilaration and Joy of having been able to receive Spiritual Truths upon the Earth.. even so, they are delighting now in the opportunities that they have to again serve and work with those of you who are Spirit in Body. We who are Spirit would encourage each of you to take the time daily to look for another who you will be able to help upon the Earth Plane. This is not asking you to devote your life to the service of another, for indeed all must make decisions for self. All are to work to better self. But know that within the heart of everyone there is a space that can be filled by a kind word or a deed that would let them know that someone else cares for them.

It is at this point that JEY wishes to say this as well. Even as you have had the opportunity to become a member of a group'.. a Spiritual group known upon the Earth as OMEGA.. you have in turn had the opportunity to influence others. This has been important in your life. Not that you have encouraged others to become followers of the same Spiritual Journey that you are one; but you have had the opportunity to allow them to know that there is more to life than just the usual day to day activities that seem to fill the lives of mankind. Even as you have the opportunity to share the beauty of the Light within you, you in turn allow another to glimpse that Light.. which in turn will allow them to grow in the Beauty of the Light of the Creator and share it with another!

This may sound familiar to you, for there has been in your language upon the Earth that which you would call a 'domino effect'...in other words, one will affect the other. And so you must understand that your daily life.. the things you do each day.. may seem of little import to you; but know that many are affected by what you do and say upon the Earth at this time. Even as you are surrounded by those who understand your own needs, your own Spiritual needs at this time, know you like that which is a new beginning. You can begin the day with that which is an excitement a joy and with Love.. and look forward to every challenge that is to be given to you in that day.

May it always be thus in the remainder of the lives that you have. Be excited about what God is giving you. Be excited about who you are and what your purpose is upon Earth. May God, the Creator of all things as you know the Creator to be, bless you and keep you in that which is a time upon the Earth Plane where you are fulfilling and experiencing all that is meant for you at this time. Allow this one to say to you too that as you accept that which has been given to you as a priority in your life, know that you will leave this Earth when the time comes for you to make the passing, rejoicing and knowing that you will be benefited from the life you have led at this time. Even so, those who have been known as OMEGA and have now regained their status in the Spirit Realm have the opportunity to rejoice each day and to be thankful for the opportunity to work as OMEGA.. .not as Spirit in Body but as Spirit. And so it is that whether you are Spirit or Spirit in Body, there is always the opportunity to receive and in turn to give. That is indeed necessary, whether you serve on the Earth or in the Spirit Realm. Be at Peace. Know that we who are in Spirit continue to watch over you and to give you the Love and Guidance that we feel you need at this time. But know that none of you who are gathered here at this time can expect to be simply taken by the hand and guided daily! Allow your Spirit to help you; and then you make decisions based upon the guidance of your Spirit Within! That is the way it shall be. And so at this time this one would come to you giving you the Love and asking that your Love in turn is given to another who is in need. Go now in Peace.

JEY returns and would ask you to keep the words that have been spoken in your hearts for indeed they have been words that will have meaning to you as you go forth in the day to come. Know that you must always remember that LOVE is the key to all that brings joy in this lifetime. You can share it or you can store it away and allow it to become simply another possession that you little need. LOVE GROWS ONLY THROUGH THE SHARING. Go now in Love. AMEN.
